Cultural Heritage and the Future Cornelius Holtorf, Anders Högberg, 2020-12-10 Cultural Heritage and the Future brings together an international group of scholars and experts to consider the relationship between cultural heritage and the future Drawing on case studies from around the world the contributing authors insist that cultural heritage and the future are intimately linked and that the development of futures thinking should be a priority for academics students and those working in the wider professional heritage sector Until recently the future has never attracted substantial research and debate within heritage studies and heritage management and this book addresses this gap by offering a balance of theoretical and empirical content that will stimulate multidisciplinary debate in the burgeoning field of critical heritage studies Cultural Heritage and the Future questions the role of heritage in future making and will be of great relevance to academics and students working in the fields of museum and heritage studies archaeology anthropology architecture conservation studies sociology history and geography Those working in the heritage professions will also find much to interest them within the pages of this book

Change the past in the future - a look into the existence of time Henry Norsworthy, Around nine years ago now I noticed that when I look at somebody or another living being they react to it The responses can include a blink raised eyebrows a flinch look up look in my direction or just a general change in trajectory This phenomenon is known as a gaze response and the most prominent researcher that I have come across studying it is Rupert Sheldrake It is not understood how it happens as there is no physical medium or connection in between people as to how it could happen and so it is a non local phenomenon locality means that something can only effect something in direct contact immediate proximity with it However around seven years ago I noticed that the same responses were also occurring when I watch somebody in a video that was filmed in the past which raised a lot of questions that are discussed in this book 15 pages Contents Change the past in the future The physics of time Fine tuning and multiverse hypothesis Non duality Henry Norsworthy London England hnorsworthy gmail com Published 2025

The Future Happens Twice Matt Browne,2007 Debrya Handson a 33 year old professor in computational linguistics at the University of Minnesota is ready for a career change She decides to leave her academic post and move to Nevada where she joins a top secret project that is being sponsored by the American government Using powerful telescopes on the far side of the Moon the project s astronomers have discovered an Earth like planet that is eighty two light years away simultaneously a major breakthrough in bio engineering presents the project with the unique opportunity of long distance space travel At first Debrya has no idea why the study of language is to play such a central role and why twin studies are also so important During her orientation week she discovers a disturbing secret that makes her wish she had never joined the project Soon she is faced with the dilemma of revealing the dark secrets of the project or being part of the most ambitious undertaking in the history of humankind Matt Browne s beautifully worked space epic explores the bounds of human hope and plumbs the depths of human duplicity Tender relationships between the budding astronauts are pitched against the disillusion they feel when an embattled President confronts them with their true origins and purpose The author s fascination with the fields of bioengineering and information technology sustains the reader s interest all the way through this roller coaster ride The adventures continue in parts II and III of Matt Browne s thrilling trilogy The Future Happens Twice Human Destiny and The Andromeda Encounter
