The Gamesman:

A Vietnam Experience James B. Stockdale, 2013-09-01 The decade that followed James Stockdale's seven and a half years in a North Vietnamese prison saw his life take a number of different turns from a stay in a navy hospital in San Diego to president of a civilian college to his appointment as a senior research fellow at the Hoover Institution In this collection of essays he offers his thoughts on his imprisonment Describing the horrors of his treatment as a prisoner of war Stockdale tells how he discovered firsthand the capabilities and limitations of the human spirit in such a situation As the senior officer in confinement he had what he humbly describes as the easiest leadership job in the world to maintain the organization resistance and spirit of ten of the finest men I have ever known His reflections on his wartime prison experience and the reasons for his survival form the basis of the writings reprinted here In subject matter ranging from methods of communication in prison to military ethics to the principles of leadership the thirty four selections contained in this volume are a unique record of what Stockdale calls a melting experience a pressure packed existence that forces one to grow Retired Vice Admiral James B Stockdale a Hoover Institution fellow from 1981 to 1996 was Ross Perot's 1992 presidential running mate and a recipient of the Medal of Honor after enduring seven and a half years as a prisoner of war in North Vietnam He died in 2005 at the age of 81

The Age of Heretics Art Kleiner, 2008-10-03 In this second edition of his bestselling book author Art Kleiner explores the nature of effective leadership in times of change and defines its importance to the corporation of the future He describes a heretic as a visionary who creates change in large scale companies balancing the contrary truths they can't deny against their loyalty to their organizations The Age of Heretics reveals how managers can get stuck in counterproductive ways of doing things and shows why it takes a heretical point of view to get past the deadlock and move forward

The Gamesman Michael Maccoby, 1978-02 Thoughts of a Philosophical Fighter Pilot James B. Stockdale, 2013-09-01 Thoughts on issues of character leadership integrity personal and public virtue and ethics the selections in this volume converge around the central theme of how man can rise with dignity to prevail in the face of adversity lessons just as valid for the challenges of present day life as they were for the author's Vietnam experience

To Promote Peace Dennis L. Bark, 2021-04-22 Sharing the premise that an adequate credible defense is the best guarantee of peace sixteen distinguished foreign policy experts test the chances of peace by examining American foreign policy in To Promote Peace Writing from the vantage point of the mid 1980s these contributors approach a broad spectrum of the day's issues developing fresh ideas and innovative policy approaches at every turn Their essays always challenging clear and incisive furnish a realistic blueprint for peace in a world dominated by nuclear fantasies and cutting edge technologies Declaring that the Allies must bear their fair share of NATO's common defense Melvyn Krauss argues the time has come to begin phasing out U S forces in Europe Pointing out that compromised intelligence has squandered much of our technological advantage Arnold Beichman demands that top priority be given to the establishment of an effective sophisticated intelligence network Showing the effects of d tente inspired build down of tactical nuclear weapons H Joachim Ma tre explores a variety of weapons systems in achieving true mutual deterrence From an analysis of the critical relationship between energy supply and peace to tough and well reasoned predictions on what the future holds To Promote Peace is not afraid to spark debate and seek new initiatives and direction Its assessments consider global issues with more realism more courage and more certainty of the necessity of maintaining the United States as a forceful presence throughout the world

Ear Ornaments of Ancient India M. Postel,1989 Illustrations 330 colour 80 b w illustrations Description This is the first time that earrings worn in ancient India are studied comprehensively taking into account the excavated material which is compared to the earrings depicted on the sculptures of the different periods A classification is attempted on the basis of types shapes materials and periods Some revealing conclusions emerge like the perennity of some forms the permanency of the symbols depicted on them which are mostly solar their origin in the Harappan culture and the geographical unity of the usage of certain types A large number of coloured photographs show the earrings worn from the Harappan period into medieval India The moulds to make metal earrings are also studied particularly the controversial stone discs and rings Additionally the nandipada or taurine symbol the Mother Goddess the conch shell the beads amulets as also solar symbolism are studied in separate appendices since they are relevant to this subject
