Woman Between The Wind:

Edinburgh Companion to Women in Publishing, 1900-2020 Elizabeth Willson Gordon, Alice Staveley, Helen Southworth, Daniela La Penna, MARRISA JOSEPH, Sophie Heywood, Claire Battershill, Nicola Wilson, 2024-02-06 Women's creative labour in publishing has often been overlooked. This book draws on dynamic new work in feminist book history and publishing studies to offer the first comparative collection exploring women's diverse deeply embedded work in modern publishing. Highlighting the value of networks, collaboration, and archives, the companion sets out new ways of reading women's contributions to the production and circulation of global print cultures. With an international intergenerational set of contributors using diverse methodologies, essays explore women working in publishing transatlantically on the continent and beyond the Anglosphere. The book combines new work on high-profile women publishers and editors alongside analysis of women's work as translators, illustrators, booksellers, advertisers, patrons, and publisher's readers, complemented by new oral histories and interviews with leading women in publishing today. The first collection of its kind, the companion helps establish and shape a thriving new research field.

Leaning Into the Wind Linda M. Hasselstrom, Gaydell M. Collier, Nancy Curtis, 1997 To witness the joy and authenticity a life can hold, meet the women of today's High Plains West. These true stories, essays, and poems tell of the glories and rigors of living close to the land, depicting an American West that is blessed, unromantic.

Historia Animalium Book X, 2023-06-08 This is the first modern edition of Book X of the Historia Animalium. It argues that the first five chapters are a summary from the hand of Aristotle of a medical treatise by a physician practicing in the fourth century BCE. This gives short shrift to Hippocratic staples such as trapped menses and the wandering womb and describes a woman's climax during sex in terms that can be easily mapped onto modern accounts. In summarizing the treatise and examining its claims in the last two chapters, Aristotle follows the method described in the Topics for a philosopher embarking on a new field of study. Here we see Aristotle's ruminations over the conundrum of a woman's contribution to conception at an early stage in the development of his theory of reproduction Far from being an insignificant pseudepigraphon this is a central text for understanding the development of ancient gynaecology and Aristotelian methodology The Wind Among the Reeds William Butler Yeats,1907 Woman's Home Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church ,1928
