Slave Path 3 Into The Chasm:

Race and Reunion David W. Blight, 2002-03-01 No historical event has left as deep an imprint on America's collective memory as the Civil War. In the war's aftermath, Americans had to embrace and cast off a traumatic past. David Blight explores the perilous path of remembering and forgetting, and reveals its tragic costs to race relations and America's national reunion. Catalogue of Plays, 1916 Sanger & Jordon, 1916

Climates. Habitats. Environments. Ute Meta Bauer, 2022-04-05 Artists and writers go beyond disciplinary boundaries and linear histories to address the fight for environmental justice, uniting the Asia Pacific vantage point with international discourse. Modeling the curatorial as a method for uniting cultural production and science, Climates, Habitats, Environments weaves together image and text to address the global climate crisis. Through exhibitions, artworks, and essays, artists and writers transcend disciplinary boundaries and linear histories to bring their knowledge and experience to bear on the fight for environmental justice. In doing so, they draw on the rich cultural heritage of the Asia Pacific in conversation with international discourse to demonstrate transdisciplinary solutions, seeking experimental in form as well as in method. Climates, Habitats, Environments features an inventive book design by mono studio that puts word and image on equal footing, offering a multiplicity of media interpretations and manifestations of interdisciplinary research. For example, botanist Matthew Hall draws on Ovid's Metamorphoses to discuss human-plant interpenetration; curator and writer Venus Lau considers how spectrality consumes and is consumed in animation and film; literature, music, and cuisine; and critical theorist and filmmaker Elizabeth Povinelli proposes Water Sense as a geontological approach to the question of our connected and differentiated existence, informed by the ancestral catastrophe of colonialism. Artists excavate the natural and cultural DNA of indigo, lacquer, rattan, and mulberry works at the intersection of art, design, and architecture. The Posthuman City, an ongoing research project, investigates the ecological urgencies of Pacific archipelagos. The works of art, the projects, and the majority of the texts featured in the book were commissioned by NTU Centre for Contemporary Art, Singapore. Copublished with NTU Centre for Contemporary Art, Singapore.

Colossae in Space and Time Alan H. Cadwallader, Michael Trainor, 2011-12-07 The ancient site of Colossae in south-west Turkey has been sorely neglected by archaeologists and biblical commentators. It has never been excavated. Modern scholarship in general has been content to repeat nineteenth-century assessments, especially those of J. B. Lightfoot and W. M. Ramsay. This is the first modern contribution to gather the archaeological, historical, classical, and biblical materials related to the site and its region, some of which is published in English for the first time. It marks a major step forward in scholarship on Colossae and is designed to restore Colossae to time and space, to its material and comparative significance. Colossae emerges as a site of uninterrupted human activity in dynamic interaction with its neighbours, from before the Achaemenid period to beyond the end of Byzantine control. Evidence of a Chalcolithic origin of Colossae is presented along with an assessment of the relationship of the site to the modern city of Honaz. An array of international scholars have brought their specialisations in various periods and disciplines to yield a radically new assessment of the history and importance of the site All future scholarship will be able to use this volume as the necessary foundation for research The volume includes the first chronology of the ancient site and the first English translation of the key Byzantine text centred on the ancient city as well as major new insights into the text of the Epistle to the Colossians The Negro Trail Blazers of California Delilah Leontium Beasley,1919 Stories of real African Americans in California from the earliest explorers to the dawn of the twentieth century *Finding W.D.
