William Harris Elson

Thundering Heart:

The Thundering Herd Zane Grey, 2022-08-01 In The Thundering Herd Zane Grey captures the untamed spirit of the American West through a sweeping narrative that combines adventure romance and the harsh realities of frontier life. Set against the backdrop of the American West's majestic landscapes, Grey's prose is vivid and evocative, immersing the reader in the pulse of nature and the complexities of human emotion. The novel intricately weaves themes of survival, loyalty, and the inevitable clash between man and nature, all while drawing on the burgeoning movement of Western fiction that emerged in the early 20th century, positioning itself as both a reflection of and a commentary on the American ethos of exploration and conquest. Zane Grey, a prolific writer and outdoorsman, drew inspiration from his own experiences hunting and fishing in the American wilderness. His passion for the landscape and its lore is palpable in his writing and likely motivates his exploration of themes such as the brutality of existence versus the beauty of nature. Grey's intimate knowledge of Western landscapes, combined with his literary ambitions, helped to elevate the genre, crafting influential tales that resonate with a sense of authenticity and adventure. Readers enamored with tales of the Wild West, character-driven narratives, and the battle for survival will find The Thundering Herd an essential addition to their literary repertoire. Grey's ability to blend action with deeper philosophical reflections makes this novel a compelling read that celebrates the tenacity of the human spirit amid nature's grandeur.

Horizons Francis Hackett, 1918 Within Our Gates Alan Gevinson, 1997 These volumes are endlessly absorbing as an excursion into cultural history and national memory.

Arthur Schlesinger Jr Holocaust of the East Farzana Moon, 2021-02-03 Holocaust of the East is a remembrance of the tragedies past, recounting the partition of Hindustan into India and Pakistan. Through the mirror of history, polished by time, this book hopes to lend the light of harmony through its own candid reflection. It is a book of reckoning, staying afloat over the ocean of vengeance and bloodshed. Love to the right, hate to the left, cruelty in the foreground, compassion in the background. All rooted solid in the marshland of a paradox. Evil and good run parallel amidst the mass exodus of Sikhs, Hindus, and Muslims, never meeting in twain and filling the craters of the great divide with million dead, mutilated, and slaughtered. Paradoxically, all the horrors and atrocities in the aftermath of partition in this book strive toward awakening the cosmic compassion of the world. A world which could transcend above the petty conflicts of power and possession. A world within worlds where all creeds and nations could take pride in sharing the rosary of love, peace, and harmony for the benefit of humanity in its evolution toward unity, preserving only the pearls of intellect and understanding. Farzana Moon's earlier writings are vivid evocations of life on the Indian subcontinent, bringing a rich depiction of a world too little known to American readers. Holocaust of the East promises to match her previous work. She brings the harsh and tragic history of Hindustan to bear on doubled love stories as tragic as the peoples who are ripped apart by their country's partition. The effect on ordinary people of political power plays is powerfully shown in a story that is deeply engrossing. Recommended highly for all those wanting to learn more of the events which have shaped the last half century in an area of the world which is becoming increasingly more important to American interests both business and political Alan Woods Director of Lawrence and Lee Theatre Research Institute Ohio State University Columbus OH Storytelling is a powerful teacher We live our lives through our stories which can become through reflection lessons learned A story of life one truly told is always explored through binary opposites To truly tell an event is to recount its history from all points of view Holocaust of the East engages the reader in the exploration of a tragedy that expands the definition of the word holocaust This book by Farzana Moon explores the concept of love in a world of madness The unfolding of this remarkable story offers a view of history where love becomes a question in the past and an answer for the future Susan L Brenner Ph D Core Faculty College of Education Capella University Catalogue ... Montgomery Ward,1929 The Living Age ,1873 Publications University of Chicago.
