Journeyman in Jerusalem Raphael Patai,2000-01-01 Picking up from Apprentice in Budapest the first volume of Raphael Patai s autobiography Journeyman in Jerusalem presents the fascinating journey of a young scholar struggling to make his way in the midst of often trying circumstances while a nation in the making struggles to establish itself The book covers fifteen years 1933 to 1947 during which the Yishuv the Jewish community of Palestine experienced one of the most turbulent periods of its history This volume is an invaluable record of this era and of the early life of its author who was to become one of the most respected Jewish scholars of the twentieth century

Life Beyond the Holocaust Mira Ryczke Kimmelman,2022-08-31 For the rare Jews of Poland who managed to survive the Holocaust the very idea of a return to what had been one s homeland might seem both physically and psychologically impossible perhaps even absurd Yet it is precisely this paradoxical journey that Mira Kimmelman undertakes with great dignity and generosity In words that are both direct and intimate she exposes the ambivalence of what it means to learn to live again after Auschwitz to experience love raise a family and assume a steadfast place in the Jewish community of a new land At the same time she acknowledges the abyss of losses that can never be retrieved Perhaps even more importantly Mira reveals how the pain of a return is transformed into a new adventure of discovery and reconciliation to be shared with her sons their families and her readers for generations to come

Karen D Levy Professor of French Studies University of Tennessee This book is written with intelligence sensitivity and eloquence As a post Holocaust memoir it is an excellent volume inasmuch as it brings out the scope of the Holocaust its impact on future generations and how it affects our understanding of past generations The author explores and elucidates the problems of liberation from death and the return to life that forever confront Holocaust survivors

David Patterson Bornblum Chair in Judaic Studies University of Memphis Life beyond the Holocaust brings to mind in its power to document painful memories Primo Levi's The Reawakening Ms Kimmelman's memoir is above all a beautiful love story of herself and her husband Max She writes in a vernacular style that evokes her experiences with specific details Her book is alive and celebrates in good prose human values triumphing over radical evil Hugh Nissenson Our Jewish Neighbors, 1924 A Mingled Yarn Matilda Anne Mackarness, 1873 Portrait in a Mirror Charles Morgan, 1929 First Love Charles Morgan, 1929 The New American Church Monthly, 1924 Includes section Book reviews The American Church Monthly, 1924 Letters from George Eliot to Elma Stuart, 1872-1880 George Eliot, 1909 Caxtoniana: a Series of Essays on Life, Literature, and Manners Edward Bulwer Lytton Baron Lytton, 1863 The confessions of a scribbler [J.
