Suppletion in Verb Paradigms Ljuba N. Veselinova, 2006 This book examines stem change in verb paradigms as in English go go PRESENT vs went go PAST a phenomenon referred to as suppletion in current linguistic theory The work is based on a broad sample of 193 languages and examines this long neglected phenomenon from a typological perspective In addition to identifying types of suppletion which occur cross linguistically the study brings to light areal patterns of the occurrence of suppletive forms in verb paradigms Several hypotheses as regards the diachronic development of suppletive forms are presented as well The author also seeks to explore the methodological issues of evaluating the frequency of linguistic features in large language samples by introducing a method of weighting languages according to their genetic relatedness All figures obtained in this way are compared to the proportions yielded by more familiar counting methods and the results and implications of the different procedures are compared and discussed throughout Here - Hither - Hence and

Related Categories Julia Nintemann, Maja Robbers, Nicole Hober, 2020-07-20 As a follow up study to the global comparison of spatial interrogatives Studia Typologica 20 the present book examines the spatial declarative counterparts which are provided by the expression class of spatial deictic adverbs In a functionally motivated typological approach equivalents of Early Modern English here hither hence and there thither thence are identified across a sample of 250 languages from all macro areas These are also quantitatively assessed to extrapolate areal and global trends of coding patterns The formal relationships between spatial interrogative and spatial declarative paradigms are analyzed with a focus on the syncretism of categories and of individual cells Qualitative discussions of patterns precede in depth treatments of problematic cases and other relevant issues related to the research topic The quantitative results strongly point to areal linguistic trends concerning the distribution of distinct and non distinct coding of the three spatial relations Place Goal and Source Additional aspects such as quantitative evaluations of constructional complexity are addressed subsequently Kaapse bibliotekaris, 2017
