The Southern Remembered:

Remembering the South African War Peter Donaldson, 2013-08-08 The first comprehensive survey of the memorialisation process in Britain in the aftermath of the South African War uncovering the themes and myths that underpinned the interpretations of the war as well as shifting patterns in how the war was represented and conceived The Southern Past

William Fitzhugh Brundage, 2009-07 Annotation Since the Civil War whites and blacks have struggled over the meanings and uses of the Southern past Indeed today s controversies over flying the Confederate flag renaming schools and streets and commemorating the Civil War and the civil rights movement are only the latest examples of this ongoing divisive contest over issues of regional identity and heritage The Southern Past argues that these battles are ultimately about who has the power to determine what we remember of the past and whether that remembrance will honor all Southerners or only select groups For more than a century after the Civil War elite white Southerners systematically refined a version of the past that sanctioned their racial privilege and power In the process they filled public spaces with museums and monuments that made their version of the past sacrosanct Yet even as segregation and racial discrimination worsened blacks contested the white version of Southern history and demanded inclusion Streets became sites for elaborate commemorations of emancipation and schools became centers for the study of black history This counter memory surged forth and became a potent inspiration for the civil rights movement and the black struggle to share a common Southern past rather than a divided one W Fitzhugh Brundage s searing exploration of how those who have the political power to represent the past simultaneously shape the present and determine the future is a valuable lesson as we confront our national past to meet the challenge of current realities The Southern Remembered Gavin W. Morrison, 1980 History, Memory and Public Life Anna Maerker, Simon Sleight, Adam Sutcliffe, 2018-07-06 History Memory and Public Life introduces readers to key themes in the study of historical memory and its significance by considering the role of historical expertise and understanding in contemporary public reflection on the past Divided into two parts the book addresses both the theoretical and applied aspects of historical memory studies Approaches to history and memory introduces key methodological and theoretical issues within the field such as postcolonialism sites of memory myths of national origins and questions raised by memorialisation and museum presentation Difficult pasts looks at history and memory in practice through a range of case studies on contested complex or traumatic memories including the Northern Ireland Troubles post apartheid South Africa and the Holocaust Examining the intersection between history and memory from a wide range of perspectives and supported by guidance on further reading and online resources this book is ideal for students of history as well as those working within the broad interdisciplinary field of memory studies History of South Carolina Yates Snowden, Harry Gardner Cutler, 1920 History of the United States from the Foundation of Virginia to the Reconstruction of the Union Percy Greg, 1887 Musorgsky Remembered Aleksandra Anatol'evna Orlova, 1991 In a single volume Alexandra Orlova has assembled the most complete and up to date collection of memoirs by contemporaries of the Russian composer Modest Petrovich Musorgsky 1839 1881 These thirty six reminiscences were written by well known figures of the Russian musical scene at the time including the composers Borodin Rimsky Korsakov and Balakirev the critics Vladimir Stasov and Mikhail Ivanov and several performing musicians as well as by little known people who were privileged to have met the composer A well defined image of Musorgsky emerges from the various accounts a small delicate looking man immaculately dressed always a welcome guest at fashionable homes and unfortunately an alcoholic Skillful as an accompanist and improviser at the piano Musorgsky was exceedingly generous with his time and talent as a performer at concerts for the benefit of students We see him among his musical colleagues the so called Balakirev circle trying out their latest compositions for one another at social gatherings Some of the most poignant memoirs recount emotion filled visits with Musorgsky in the hospital during his last illness Most of the memoirists are truthful objective and loving Their accounts coupled with Orlova s copious notes provide a valuable insight into Musorgsky s life and personality The South American missionary magazine [afterw.] Magazine of the South American missionary society [afterw.] S.A.M.S. at work [afterw.] Sams [afterw.] Sent. Ed. by W.W. Kirby South American missionary society,1871 The Atlantic War Remembered John T. Mason,1990 Twenty eight men and women recall their participation in the allied defeat of Hitler Bulletin of the Southern California Academy of Sciences ,1914 Where These Memories Grow W. Fitzhugh Brundage,2015-12-01 Southerners are known for their strong sense of history But the kinds of memories southerners have valued and the ways in which they have preserved transmitted and revitalized those memories have been as varied as the region s inhabitants themselves This collection presents fresh and innovative perspectives on how southerners across two centuries and from Texas to North Carolina have interpreted their past Thirteen contributors explore the workings of historical memory among groups as diverse as white artisans in early nineteenth century Georgia African American authors in the late nineteenth century and Louisiana Cajuns in the twentieth century In the process they offer critical insights for understanding the many communities that make up the American South As ongoing controversies over the Confederate flag the Alamo and depictions of slavery at historic sites demonstrate southern history retains the power to stir debate By placing these and other conflicts over the recalled past into historical context this collection will deepen our understanding of the continuing significance of history and memory for southern regional identity Contributors Bruce E Baker Catherine W Bishir David W Blight Holly Beachley Brear W Fitzhugh Brundage Kathleen Clark Michele Gillespie John Howard Gregg D Kimball Laurie F Maffly Kipp C Brenden Martin Anne Sarah Rubin Stephanie E Yuhl South Wind Norman Douglas,1921 Transactions of the South Eastern Union of Scientific Societies ,1908 Journal of the Royal United Service Institution Royal United Service Institution (Great Britain),1874 Fitz-Hugh St. Clair, the South Carolina Rebel Boy Sallie F.
