We Just Moved:

We Just Moved! Stephen Krensky, 1998-06 A boy is excited about moving into a new castle in medieval times Ava's Big Move Mary Van Reyk, 2017-09-12 Join the girls as they take on the world one wave at a time Meet five very different girls with one thing in common they've caught the surfing bug Ava has grown up in a big city But everything changes when her parents decide on a sea change they're moving to the small town of Beachcrest to open a cafe Ava will be starting high school that year and now she has to say goodbye to her life in the city Her new school is very different and Ava misses her friends When she hears that surfing is going to be offered as a sport for the first time Ava uses her snowboard skills to give it a try Not everyone thinks she can become a surfer but Ava is determined to prove them wrong and she's making new friends along the way Ava Alex Bronte Janani and Molly form the Surf Riders Club to help each other practise but it quickly becomes much more than that Whether it's learning how to get barrelled problem parents or annoying boys the Surf Riders Club are there for each other no matter what Officially endorsed by Surfing Australia and includes a special message from Tyler Wright 2016 WSL Women's World Surfing Champion Priced Out Rachael A. Woldoff, Lisa M. Morrison, Michael R. Glass, 2016-03-15 On an average morning in Manhattan's Stuyvesant Town housing development birds chirp as early risers dash off to work elderly residents enjoy a peaceful morning stroll and flocks of parents usher their children to school It seems an unlikely location for conflict and strife yet this eighteen block area initially planned as middle class affordable housing is the site of an ongoing struggle between long term rent regulated residents and newer market rate tenants Priced Out takes readers into this heated battle as a transitioning neighborhood wrestles with contemporary capitalist strategies and the struggle to preserve renters rights Attempting to replace longtime residents with younger more affluent tenants Stuyvesant Town's owners have disrupted native residents sense of place community and perceived quality of life Through interviews with residents the authors offer an intimate view into the lives of different groups of tenants involved in this struggle for prime real estate in New York from students experiencing the city for the first time to baby boomers hanging on to the vestiges of middle class urban life to older residents who have lived in Stuyvesant Town since it opened in 1947 A compelling account of changing urban landscapes and the struggle for security Priced Out offers a comprehensive perspective of a community that to some is becoming unrecognizable as it is upgraded and altered Page 4 of cover

Ladies of Soul David Freeland, 2009-09-23 American soul music of the 1960s is one of the most creative and influential musical forms of the twentieth century With its merging of gospel R B country and blues soul music succeeded in crossing over from African American culture into the general pop culture Soul became the byword for the styles attitudes and dreams of an entire era Female performers were responsible for some of the most enduring and powerful contributions to the genre All too frequently overlooked by the star making critics seven of these women are profiled in this book Maxine Brown Ruby Johnson Denise LaSalle Bettye LaVette Barbara Mason Carla Thomas and Timi Yuro Getting started during the heyday of soul

each of these talented women had recording contracts and gave live performances to appreciative audiences Their careers can be tracked through the popularity of soul during the 1960s and its decline in the 1970s With humor candor pride and honest recognition that their careers did not surge into the mainstream and gain superstardom they recount individual stories of how they struggled for success Their oral histories as told to David Freeland address compelling issues including racism and sexism within the music industry They discuss their grueling hardships on the road their conflicts with male managers and the cutthroat competition in the recording business As each singer examines her career with the author she reveals the dreams hopes and desires on which she has built her professional life All seven face up to the career swings from the highs of releasing the first hit to the frustrating lows when the momentum stops Although the obstacles to stardom are heartbreaking these singers are committed to their art With determination and style these seven have pressed onward with club appearances and recordings They survive through their savvy mix of talent hubris and honesty about their lives and their music
