The Achievements Of Memory:

The Achievements of Memory Harry Guest,1974 The Achievement of Brian Friel Alan J. Peacock,1993 The reception of Brian Friel's recent Dancing at Lughnasa confirms his status as Ireland's leading dramatist. The body of work that he has produced is outstanding in its breadth of sympathy and interest, its dramaturgical invention and its wide cultural and intellectual purview. At one level it may be seen as a continuous examination of Irish culture and politics, committed and analytical but not sectionally propagandist. His outlook in his drama however is not amenable to simplistic categorization, political or otherwise. As this volume demonstrates, linguistically allusively and in terms of its broad transcultural analogising, his work ranges widely. He utilises ideas and terminologies drawn from various cultural sources and academic disciplines in a way that exemplifies his central insistent concern with the phenomenon of language and its implications. As an Irish dramatist however he makes Irish social, political and notably family life his focus and builds upon a recognised tradition of twentieth century Irish play writing. This book addresses the variety and complexity of Friel's drama by bringing to bear a range of academic and other professional and creative approaches in order to highlight particular aspects of his work and thought. Hence contributors include a playwright, poet, theatre producer, historian and various specialists in relevant literatures. In this way the book suggests the intellectual richness, humanity and protean skill and invention of the work. Memory's Milestones Percy Frazer Smith,1918 Memory's Gift ,1854 The Secret of Achievement Walter B. Pitkin,1930

Urban Communities and Memories in East-Central Europe in the Modern Age Aleksander Łupienko,2024-08-07 This edited volume studies the logic of community formation and the common view of the past to show how various social bonds of communities functioned during the modern national era of East Central Europe from the late eighteenth century until today and how multifaceted this group building really was. Through an overview of selected examples of communities in East Central European urban centres, mainly the territories of the Polish-Lithuanian Commonwealth and its successor empires, the volume shows the potential of re-interpretation or adaptation of the past as a crucial tool for assuring social cohesion and for strengthening the image of group boundaries. It studies not only textual sources but also the cultural construction of local historical writings such as oral tradition and municipal publications as well as symbolic objects such as epitaphs, plaques, monuments and public edifices. The contributors explore the actual creativity employed by these communities to envision their past and their future in homage to the ideals of centralised nationalism or regionalism and how these strongly ethnically marked historic spaces can be interpreted, celebrated or neglected. This book will be of interest to scholars and students of regional urban history and cultural diversities, memory cultures and community formation.

Closing the Achievement Gap Belinda Williams,1996-10-15 It's no secret that students attending urban schools in the United States do not fare as well on measures of achievement as their rural and suburban counterparts. According to Belinda Williams and her coauthors, this gap is largely due to a little acknowledged fact: that poor and minority students bring culturally distinct values and beliefs to the classroom that are often incompatible with the biases inherent in the curriculum assessment measures and teachers themselves This second edition of Closing the Achievement Gap argues that if education reform is to work educators must become more sensitive to the worldviews of disadvantaged students and to incorporate this awareness into their day to day work Teachers principals and legislators must Learn about cultural perceptions of human development Apply this knowledge to professional development and comprehensive reform and Align political policy accordingly In addition to providing a framework for meeting these challenges this book offers specific suggestions for bridging the cultural divide through such diverse methods as direct vocabulary instruction opportunity to learn strategies and school level organizational reform Thoroughly researched and eloquently written it is a vital resource for ensuring that students of all backgrounds succeed equally well in the classroom

Students of Color and the Achievement Gap Richard R. Valencia,2015-03-05 Students of Color and the Achievement Gap is a comprehensive landmark analysis of an incontrovertible racialized reality in U S K 12 public education the relentless achievement gap between low socioeconomic students of color and their economically advantaged White counterparts Award winning author and scholar Richard Valencia provides an authoritative and systemic treatment of the achievement gap focusing on Black and Latino Latina students He examines the societal and educational factors that help to create and maintain the achievement gap by drawing from critical race theory an asset based perspective and a systemic inequality approach By showing how racialized opportunity structures in society and schools ultimately result in racialized patterns of academic achievement in schools Valencia shows how the various indicators of the achievement gap are actually symptoms of the societal and school quality gaps Following each of these concerns Valencia provides a number of reform suggestions that can lead to systemic transformations of K 12 education Students of Color and the Achievement Gap makes a persuasive and well documented case that school success for students of color and the empowerment of their parents can only be fully understood and realized when contextualized within broader political economic and cultural frameworks
