Stories of the Liberation Struggles in South Africa Prof. Thabo Israel Pudi,2014-12-12 The Stories of the Liberation Struggles in South Africa Mpumalanga Province is a book about the struggles of the South African people black Indian and colored when they defied and resisted oppression and apartheid from the white South African government in the pre 1994 era To ensure dominance over other race groups and the entrenchment of oppression and apartheid the white South African government applied many tactics These included dividing people along racial lines such as securing separate living areas for whites black Coloureds and Indians The government further divided the black people into ethnic groups such as Zulu Xhosa and Pedi This was to ensure that the black people were confined to what was called homelands or Bantustans The apartheid government also promulgated laws that were aimed at discriminating and undermining the freedom and integrity of the black people such as The Group Areas Act and others There was also state of emergencies which were often declared to ensure that the iron fist of apartheid and oppression remained clenched During these state of emergencies many black people died were maimed or brutally injured and some also disappeared forever When the apartheid government went further to enforce that the Afrikaans language should be the official language at all schools then they found that they have committed the greatest error The students opposed it Violence erupted from the Soweto schools and it spread to all other township The stories in Part 1 and Part 2 of the books are about the liberation stories of the struggles in South Africa Mpumalanga province which touches amongst others on the toils the trials the troubles and the perils that the youths especially had to undergo during that time Many youths skipped the country to do military training in order to force the apartheid government to go to the negotiation table for freedom and democracy for all others waged battles within the country At many instances they fought against the might of the South African police armed with rubber bullet teargas and live ammunition whilst only armed with stones and dustbin lid as their shields Many were arrested Many died in detention Many died and there was funeral after funeral when the youths went out to bury their dead Sometimes when they return from the funerals they would suffer other casualties This was a vicious circle of funeral after funeral but the youths called the young lions never gave up There are of course other instances when the youth fought the establishment of homelands or the third force elements impimpis or askaris which worked with the system There are of course other cases of youths who also fought with local business people because these were perceived to be working with their enemies the white government Sad to say the stories herein also reveal some orgies of the youths fighting and killing people especially the elderly who were perceived to be witches All these stories are true experiences from the contributors Colour, Class and Community - The Natal Indian Congress, 1971-1994 Ashwin Desai, Goolam Vahed, 2021-11-01 Positions the history and inner workings of the Natal Indian Congress NIC against the canvas of the major political developments in South Africa during the 1970s and 1980s up to the first democratic elections in 1994 Following a hiatus in the 1960s the Natal Indian Congress NIC in South Africa was revived in 1971 In fascinating detail Ashwin Desai and Goolam Vahed bring the inner workings of the NIC to life against the canvas of major political developments in South Africa during the 1970s and 1980s and up to the first democratic elections in 1994 The NIC was relaunched during the rise of the Black Consciousness Movement which attracted a following among Indian university students and whose invocation of Indians as Black led to a major debate about ethnic organisations such as the NIC This debate persisted in the 1980s with the rise of the United Democratic Front and its commitment to non racialism The NIC was central to other major debates of the period most significantly the lines drawn between boycotting and participating in government created structures such as the Tri Cameral Parliament Despite threats of banning and incarceration the NIC kept attracting recruits who encouraged the development of community organisations such as students radicalised by the 1980s education boycotts and civic protests Colour Class and Community The Natal Indian Congress 1971 1994 details how some members of the NIC played dual roles as members of a legal organisation and as allies of the African National Congress underground armed struggle Drawing on varied sources including oral interviews newspaper reports and minutes of organisational meetings this in depth study tells a largely untold history challenging

The Treason Trials of Aaron Burr Peter Charles Hoffer, 2008 Aaron Burr was an enigma even in his own day Founding Father and vice president he engaged in a duel with Alexander Hamilton resulting in a murder indictment that effectively ended his legal career And when he turned his attention to entrepreneurial activities on the frontier he was suspected of empire building and worse In the first book dedicated to this important case Peter Charles Hoffer unveils a cast of characters ensnared by politics and law at the highest levels of government including President Thomas Jefferson one of Burr s bitterest enemies and Chief Justice John Marshall no fan of either Burr or Jefferson Hoffer recounts how Jefferson s prosecutors argued that the mere act of discussing an overt Act of War the constitution s definition of treason was tantamount to committing the act Marshall however ruled that without the overt act no treasonable action had occurred and neither discussion nor conspiracy could be prosecuted Subsequent attempts to convict Burr on violations of the Neutrality Act failed as well
