We Remember D Day:

We Remember D-Day Frank Shaw, Joan Shaw, 2014-05-08 On leaving the plane I can only say I felt very lonely except that the sky was full of bullets coming upwards Fortunately it wasn't long before my feet hit the ground with a thud Almost as soon as my feet touched the ground I was to find that I had landed directly in front of the muzzle of a German Machine Gun and I received a burst of fire straight at me I can remember being hit and spinning round with a sudden yell of shock and finishing up flat on my back I lay there rather dazed for a while expecting to be hit again at any moment John Hunter Parachute Regiment Northants Seventy years ago on 6 June 1944 a great Allied Armada landed on the coast of Normandy The invasion force launched on D Day was a size never seen before and never likely to be seen again 150 000 soldiers more than 6 000 ships and 11 000 combat aircraft took part in the assault The success of that attack led 11 months later to the final liberation of Europe from a ruthless dictatorship that had threatened to permanently enslave it Such an undertaking on such a scale could not have been achieved without tremendous cooperation between Land Sea and Air Forces In We Remember D Day we hear from the men and women who were involved in the assault those who risked their lives for a better future Their stories tell of human bravery and endeavour pain and heartache and most importantly freedom and hope

We Remember D-Day Frank Shaw (Collator of war-time memories), Joan Shaw (Collator of war-time memories), 2014 Seventy years ago on 6 June 1944 a great Allied Armada landed on the coast of Normandy The invasion force launched on D Day was a size never seen before and never likely to be seen again In this book we hear from the men and women who were involved in the assault those who risked their lives for a better future
