Weaving A Legacy:

Weaving a Legacy Clarita Anderson,1995 Nineteenth century handwoven coverlets are exceptional windows on the early years of American culture They are increasingly prized by collectors for their superb craftsmanship and beauty of design as well as their historical significance Produced by professional weavers many of whom had fled the industrial revolution in Europe coverlets were used as the uppermost coverings of beds In addition to their intricate and colorful designs many have personal inscriptions woven into their corner blocks or borders The peak of production for handwoven coverlets was the relatively short period between 1820 and the end of the Civil War when the weaving industry was rapidly becoming fully mechanized The Don and Jean Stuck Coverlet Collection at the Columbus Museum of Art is the largest public collection of coverlets in the United States The works of 185 known weavers are documented here as are those of many anonymous weavers With works from the nine most prominent coverlet producing states and Canada the collection includes examples of most weave structures and has a broad representation of colors centerfield and border designs and corner blocks

Weaving a Legacy Sharon E. Dean,2004 Situated on the western edge of the Great Basin between the Sierra Nevada and White Inyo mountain ranges Owens Valley has been home for thousands of years to the Owens Valley Paiute and their southern neighbors the Panamint Shoshone The willow baskets both groups created are noteworthy for their complex construction and durability and their materials and designs reflected available resources as well as the seminomadic existence that characterized life in the Great Basin for generations Since the mid nineteenth century arrival of non Indians into the Valley the baskets have changed Weaving a Legacy places those changes in the context of the region s dramatic social history In addition the volume closely examines basketry techniques and technology historic weavers and their lineages contemporary weavers and basket collectors The text is extensively illustrated with black and white photographs of people landscapes and baskets Among the legacies of these baskets are the stories they evoke many of which the authors recount in this beautiful work

Weaving Our World Della Cheney,2017-05-26 Xaygwaay Weaving our World There are important ways of life information involved in weaving that are being lost Acknowledging the work our ancestors left us to practice weaving and harvesting our resources with respect and mindfulness of ourselves so that the legacy can continue The following describes how our communities take care of each other during our happy and sad times Tlingit Haida and Tsimpsians believe it is important to hold up our fathers people to keep balance The celebrations of life and death have sustained our cultures since time immemorial This adds the spirit to our art forms Our people believe there is a spirit in all things The practice of form line the spirit dimension of trees fish birds human beings mountains and glaciers are precious Atoow icons of our spirit world of the people of this land that our weaving carving drawing sewing beadingetc tell stories of our families Haawaa Gunalcheesh Thank you to my family and Alaska Native Fund for helping me complete my book financially and with encouragement

Weaving Bateman Blend Margaret Franklin,2018-04-04 Weaving Bateman Blend

The Companion Book is a workshop to go The book is an Intermediate weaving resource emphasizing the role of ties and tie groups in weaving It introduces Dr William Bateman s weave systems but zeroes in on one of them Bateman Blend The book is named The Companion Book as it compliments the original Monograph 36 of Virginia Harvey s set of published works on Bateman weaves striving to make Blend come alive for today s weavers The Blend structure is explained and demonstrated in the many samples woven by the author Colour photos of the 50 or more pieces will draw you in to weave Bateman today Some are examples of the weaves for today s purposes Some are original variations and extensions of the 8 shaft weaves of Dr Bateman to 12 and more shafts The book concludes with the story of Dr Bateman s work a Bibliography and Index Readers are encouraged to use other resources such as Learning to Weave by Deborah Chandler or The Complete Book of Weaving by Mary E Black for basic weaving instruction

Utah Historical Quarterly J. Cecil Alter,2005 List of charter members of the society v 1 p 98 99 HALI ,2006 Journeys West

Virginia Kerns, 2010-03 Journeys West traces journeys made during seven months of fieldwork in 1935 and 1936 by Julian Steward a young anthropologist and his wife Jane Virginia Kerns identifies the scores of Native elders whom they met throughout the Western desert men and women previously known in print only by initials and thus largely invisible as primary sources of Steward's classic ethnography Besides humanizing Steward's cultural informants revealing them as distinct individuals and also as first generation survivors of an ecological crisis caused by American settlement of their lands Kerns shows how the elders worked with Steward Each helped to construct an ethnographic portrait of life in a particular place in the high desert of the Great Basin The elders memories of how they and their ancestors had lived by hunting and gathering a sustainable way of life that endured for generations richly illustrated what Steward termed cultural adaptation It later became a key concept in anthropology and remains relevant today in an age of global environmental crisis Based on meticulous research this book draws on an impressive array of evidence from interviews and observations to census data correspondence and the field journals of the Stewards Journeys West illuminates not only the elders who were Steward's guides but also the practice of ethnographic fieldwork a research method that is both a journey and a distinctive way of looking listening and learning
