Wedding Speech Example

1. Opening: Express Gratitude

"Good evening, everyone. For those who may not know me, my name is [Your Name], and I have the absolute privilege of being [relation to the couple—e.g., the groom's best friend, the bride's sibling]. First, let me say how incredible it is to see so many of you here today to celebrate this beautiful occasion. Let's take a moment to appreciate the stunning job [Couple's Names] and their families have done in bringing this magical day to life. Can we give them a round of applause?"

2. Share a Personal Anecdote or Story

"I've had the honor of knowing [Groom/Bride] for [x years], and over that time, I've witnessed so many moments that reveal their kind heart, sense of humor, and unwavering loyalty. One moment that stands out was [share a story, e.g., a funny or heartfelt memory]. When [Bride/Groom] entered their life, it was as if a missing piece had finally been found. I could see how happy they made each other, from the way they laughed at the smallest things to the way they supported each other through challenges. They've built a foundation of love and partnership that inspires us all."

3. Compliment the Couple

"[Bride] has a warmth and charm that can light up any room, and [Groom] balances her with his steadfastness and incredible sense of humor. Together, they are proof that when two people complement each other so perfectly, they create something truly extraordinary. Their love is genuine, selfless, and enduring."

4. Offer Advice or Well Wishes

"[Bride and Groom], as you start this beautiful new chapter together, remember that marriage is not about perfect moments, but about finding perfection in every moment you share. Be each other's anchor, cheerleader, and safe space. And don't forget to laugh—a lot!"

Wedding Speeches - a Practical Guide for Delivering an Unforgettable Wedding Speech Sam Siv, 2014-09-02 A Practical Guide for Delivering an Unforgettable Wedding Speech Your wedding day should be the most important day of your life It is the day when all your friends and family as well as the friends and family of your husband to be gather together to celebrate your big day Unless you are lucky enough to be able to afford a wedding planner you will have so many things to think about and plan from the pre wedding parties to the wedding ceremony and reception and even the honeymoon As part of your wedding day it is expected that certain people in your wedding party give speeches to congratulate you on your newly married status and also to tell a few stories about you and the groom To a certain extent you don t need to worry about this aspect of the wedding unless you intend to make a speech yourself However you will want to have an input into who makes the speeches and how long they are because this will have a roll on effect on everything else that happens at your wedding reception Who gives the speeches and toasts at your wedding really depends on what you want It is traditional for the male side of the wedding party only to give speeches You may even want to cut this down further and just ask the best man and groom to give a speech Then again you may want to laugh in the face of tradition and make sure the female side of the wedding party including yourself have the chance to say something Of course you will need to check with everyone that they are happy to give a speech The groom and best man probably won t have much choice but others may prefer to stay quiet and simply listen to what the main members of the wedding party have to say
