The General Grant's Gold Madelene Fergusson Allen, Ken Scadden, 2009-04 The wreck in 1866 of the General Grant in the desolate sub Antarctic Auckland Islands is one of the world's great nautical mysteries a story that still tantalises and thrills When the ship was crushed in a cave beneath a sheer cliff face a few crew members and a handful of passengers managed to escape in a lifeboat For more than two years they lived a hand to mouth existence on a nearby island before they were rescued This story is extraordinary in itself but soon compelling legends spread that the ship had sunk with a fabulous hoard of gold from the Victorian goldfields For 140 years expeditions and bounty hunters have searched for the ship and her elusive cargo In the relentless seas of the Auckland Islands it has been a soul destroying endeavour Locating the vessel has been difficult enough finding the gold has proved impossible unless one of those early expeditions really did find it In this book Madelene Ferguson Allen and Ken Scadden tell the full story of the voyage from Melbourne the shipwreck the plight of the castaways and the search for the gold At this distance in time separating the facts from the legends is difficult but they have scrupulously researched the events of the shipwreck and examined every subsequent search for the gold The story is more remarkable than fiction a tale of heroes and cad heartbreak and loss hope and despair hunger and greed As it has bewitched so many in the past so it will haunt readers long after the last page is turned
