Working with Truman Ken Hechler, 1996 Available for the first time in paperback is the critically acclaimed Working with Truman a warm and lighthearted memoir of what it was like to work behind the scenes in the White House during Truman's term as president Focusing on the strengths and weaknesses of those who worked closely with Truman and on the Truman not seen by the public Hechler provides insight into one of our greatest presidents Erosion of Working-class Consciousness in Postwar America Leonard Eugene Bloomquist, 1986 Conversion Works Jeffrey A. Allen, 2021-11-17 In this book conversion means abandoning a world view and starting over Using this definition of conversion the book examines four works Augustine of Hippo's Confessions Rene Descartes's Meditations on First Philosophy Bernard Lonergan's Insight A Study of Human Understanding and Peter Weir's The Truman Show The main argument of this book is that all four works contain and induce conversion That is all four works feature an individual who abandons a worldview and starts over and all four works exhort their engager to do the same This book also explores the works requirement of cognitive imitation wherein a person replicates the mental activities of the individual who has a conversion in the work and of private engagement wherein a person reads or views the work while alone The book concludes with an argument for the educational value of the four works that appropriates Ernest Becker's The Denial of Death Reports of Cases Determined in the Courts of Appeal of the State of California, 1924 Report of Decisions of the Industrial Accident Board and Industrial Accident Commission of the State of California California.
