Eric Mosley, Derek Irvine, 2020-10-06 How do you keep your employees engaged, creative, innovative, and productive? Simple: Work human. From the pioneers of the management strategy that's transforming businesses worldwide, Making Work Human shows how to implement a culture of performance and gratitude in the workplace and seize a competitive edge, increase profitability, and drive business momentum. Leaders of Workhuman, the world's fastest-growing social recognition and continuous performance management platform, Eric Mosley and Derek Irvine use game-changing data analytics to prove that when a workplace becomes more human when it's fueled by a culture of gratitude, measurable business results follow. In Making Work Human, they show you how to apply analytics and artificial intelligence in ways that make work more human, not less. Expand equity, diversity, and inclusion initiatives and strategies to include a wider range of backgrounds, life experiences, and capabilities. Use recognition as an actionable strategy to create a truly inclusive, connected culture. The qualities that make us most human—connection, community, positivity, belonging, and a sense of meaning—have become the corporate fuel for getting things done, for innovating, for thriving in the global marketplace, and for outperforming the competition, the authors write. By building a sense of belonging, purpose, meaning, happiness, and energy in every employee, you'll create a profound connection between your organization and its goals. And Making Work Human provides everything you need to get there. The Automation Advantage: Embrace the Future of Productivity and Improve Speed, Quality, and Customer Experience Through AI
