Wild One:

Dig David Nichols, 2016-10-11 David Nichols tells the story of Australian rock and pop music from 1960 to 1985 formative years in which the nation cast off its colonial cultural shackles and took on the world Generously illustrated and scrupulously researched Dig combines scholarly accuracy with populist flair Nichols is an unfailingly witty and engaging guide surveying the fertile and varied landscape of Australian popular music in seven broad historical chapters interspersed with shorter chapters on some of the more significant figures of each period The result is a compelling portrait of a music scene that evolves in dynamic interaction with those in the United States and the UK yet has always retained a strong sense of its own identity and continues to deliver new stars and cult heroes to a worldwide audience Dig is a unique achievement The few general histories to date have been highlight reels heavy on illustration and short on detail And while there have been many excellent books on individual artists scenes and periods and a couple of first rate encyclopedias there s never been a book that told the whole story of the irresistible growth and sweep of a national music culture Until now The Shadow of the Hawk Mack Mangham, 2002 A vortex of evil passion suspense and beautiful writing Spanning three generations four continents and two world wars The Shadow of the Hawk brings together Kathleen and Hawk each from different generations backgrounds and outlooks Through his naivet and her patience and wisdom they meet not in his world not in hers but in a place almost mystical unreal Around them revolve Cope the moonshiner evil incarnate Toad nobility personified Miss Jesse on the edge of madness Jonathan and Judilon Kathleen s children both older than their mother s lover Adam and Ruth a frightened black couple stranded in an isolated white settlement in 1949 Robert and Raven Tallchief the Indians who watch with lust which moves into unfortunate action and 7 a sturdy man who tries to stop madness in two different worlds at one time In a pond on the mountain above them floats a body stabbed many times and someone unknown is making cyanide that will eventually take its toll Faustine and Logan form the strangest love affair in all recorded literature bringing about the death of a hidden community Every page drives you relentlessly onward with another question that must be answered This book is unstoppable The Canyon of Bones and North Star Richard S.
