Wild Man:

The Wild Man Timothy Husband, Gloria Gilmore-House, 1980      The Wild Man Within Edward Dudley, Maximilian E. Novak, 2017-03-17 These essays trace the myth of the wild man from the Middle Ages to its disintegration into symbol in the periods following the discovery of America and encounter with real wild men This is the first book to discuss the concept of wildness in the writings of the Enlightenment period in Western Europe and the first to attempt a broad interdisciplinary approach to the subject of primitivism not only from a strict history of ideas approach but through discussions of individual works both literary and political and encompassing various subject matter from racism to the origins of language Contributors Richard Ashcraft Ehrhard Bahr John G Burke Earl Miner Gary B Nash Stanley Robe Geoffrey Symcox Peter Thoralev Hayden V White and the editors      Images of the Wildman in Southeast Asia Gregory Forth, 2008-12-10 The book examines wildmen such as Homo floresiensis and ebu gogo images of hairy humanlike creatures known to rural villagers and other local people in Southeast Asia and elsewhere It explores the source of these representations and their status in local systems of knowledge      Literary Hybrids Erika E. Hess, 2004-08-02 Much like the fantastic marginalia of medieval illuminated manuscripts medieval and modern hybrid characters including werewolves serpent women and wild men function as a frame critiquing the discourses that run through their texts In Literary Hybrids Erika Hess provides a close reading of one such hybrid the female cross dresser in thirteenth century French romance examining the interplay between physical and narrative ambiguity Hess argues that the hybrid figure in medieval and contemporary French literature challenges the traditionally accepted natural order upsets rational thinking and underscores a concern with totalizing discourses or perspectives      Violence in Fifteenth-century Text and Image Edelgard E. DuBruck, Yael Even, 2002 Special issue focusing on violence in fifteenth century life text and image warfare and justice violence in family and milieu court town village and forest hagiography ethnicity and xenophobia gender relations and sexual violence brutality on the stage and the relation of text and image in the depiction of violence Founded in 1977 as the publication organ for the Fifteenth Century Symposium Fifteenth Century Studies has appeared annually since then It publishes essays on all aspects of life in the fifteenth century including literature drama history philosophy art music religion science and ritual and custom The editors strive to do justice to the most contested medieval century a period that has long been the stepchild of research The fifteenth century defies consensus on fundamental issues some scholars dispute in fact whether it belonged to the middle ages at all arguing that it was a period of transition a passage to modern times At issue therefore is the very tenor of an age that stood under the influence of Gutenberg Columbus the Devotio Moderna and Humanism Volume 27 is a special issue offering a selection of outstanding papers on violence that will interest students of medieval history and the early Renaissance the humanities art history sociology anthropology and even the general reader The articles highlight warfare and justice violence in family and milieu court town village and forest hagiography ethnicity and xenophobia gender relations and sexual violence brutality on

History of Randolph and Macon Counties, Missouri ,1884 A Genealogical and Heraldic History of the Landed Gentry of Great Britain Sir Bernard Burke,1914 Appleton's Magazine ,1908 In the Skin of a Beast Peggy McCracken,2017-05-17 In medieval literature when humans and animals meet whether as friends or foes issues of mastery and submission are often at stake In the Skin of a Beast shows how the concept of sovereignty comes to the fore in such narratives reflecting larger concerns about relations of authority and dominion at play in both human animal and human human interactions Peggy McCracken discusses a range of literary texts and images from medieval France including romances in which animal skins appear in symbolic displays of power fictional explorations of the wolf s desire for human domestication and tales of women and snakes converging in a representation of territorial claims and noble status These works reveal that the qualities traditionally used to define sovereignty lineage and gender among them are in fact mobile and contingent In medieval literary texts as McCracken demonstrates human dominion over animals is a disputed model for sovereign relations among people it justifies exploitation even as it mandates protection and care and it depends on reiterations of human animal difference that paradoxically expose the tenuous nature of human exceptionalism
