Marian Minnie George

Wild Turkeys Can Fly:

The Turkey Andrew F. Smith, 2006-09-22 Food historian Andrew F Smith presents the turkey in ten courses beginning with the bird itself actually several species of it in the wild The Turkey subsequently includes discussions of practically every aspect of the icon including its arrival in early America how it came to be called turkey its domestication and mating habits the expansion of the bird s territory into Europe conditions in modern turkey processing plants and the surprising boom or bust cycles in turkey husbandry The bird s ascension to holiday mainstay and the techniques of stuffing are also discussed As one of the easiest foods to cook the turkey s culinary possibilities have been widely explored if little noted The second half of this book is a collection of more than a hundred historical and modern turkey recipes from across America and Europe

Landscapes unveils the hidden reality of farming animals offering a powerful and emotionally charged exploration Photographs essays poetry and research together tell a factual story about the most abusive industry of the twenty first century Isabella La Rocca Gonzalez's lens captures the haunting beauty of landscapes that portray the animal agricultural industry A number displayed with each image represents the lives imprisoned within the facility drawing attention to the magnitude of suffering behind the banal exteriors Portraits of nonhuman animals who have been confined in such facilities are emblematic of the vast number of animals whose individuality sentience and beauty are obliterated by the industry Censored Landscapes maintains a lyrical quality through evocative photographs poetry and personal narrative The project also provides a robust basis in verifiable facts and scientific research Readers are encouraged to confront the intricate web of connections between animal agriculture animal suffering environmental devastation worker exploitation human health economic political structures and social justice This book is a call to action a revelation of the invisible and an opportunity to see feel and make a difference
