The Violent Land:

The Violent Land Jorge Amado,1945 In this short novel the aristocratic Badaros family is pitted against the middle class planter Colonel Horacio Silveira in a struggle to obtain a crucial piece of land for the growing of cacao Amado's true subject and one he frequently comes back to is the effect of the Bahia region's vast cacao plantations on the local citizens and the communities in which they live the great Brazilian author an exotic tale of greed madness and a dispute between two powerful families over land on the cocoa rich coast of Bahia Publisher's website The Violent Land Wayne D. Johnstone,2011-10-24 A family of Old West vigilantes helps a group of mysterious strangers in this adventure by the bestselling authors of Helltown Massacre William W Johnstone's legendary mountain men have fought their battles and conquered a fierce frontier Now three generations of the Jensen clan are trying to live in peace on their sprawling Colorado ranch But for men with fighting in their blood trouble is never very far from their doorstep Into The Eye Of A Storm They are strangers in a strange land a band of German immigrants trespassing across the Jensen family spread Led by a baron fleeing a dark past in Germany and accompanied by a woman beautiful enough to dazzle young Matt the pilgrims are being pursued by a pack of brutal outlaws hungry for blood money or maybe something else The Jensens are willing to help the pioneers get to the promised land in Wyoming But they don't know the whole story of their newfound friends or who the outlaws really are By the time the wagon train reaches Wyoming the truth is ready to explode in a clash of hard fighting hard choices and hard deaths in a violent land The violent land Jorge Amado,1945 The Violent Land Jorge Amado,1965 Righteous Revolutionaries Jeffrey A. Javed,2022-09-07 A reexamination of one of the most violent and successful state building efforts in history Governing Global Land Deals Wendy Wolford,Saturnino M. Borrás, Jr.,Ruth Hall,Ian Scoones,Ben White,2013-09-30 This collection of essays in Governing Global Land Deals provides new empirical and theoretical analyses of the relationships between global land grabs and processes of government and governance Reframes debates on global land grabs by focusing on the relationship between large scale land deals and processes of governance Offers new theoretical insights into the different forms and effects of global land acquisitions Illuminates both the micro processes of transaction and expropriation as well as the broader structural forces at play in global land deals Provides new empirical data on the different actors involved in contemporary land deals occurring across the globe and focuses on the specific institutional political and economic contexts in which they are acting The Violent Land John Friedmann,1957 Zimbabwe's Military: Examining its Veto Power in the Transition to Democracy, 2008-2013 Rupiya, Martin R.,2013-10-14 Political transition and democratisation challenges have been noted in African countries including Angola Burkina Faso Kenya Mali and the Democratic Republic of the Congo resulting in the African Union AU intervening on behalf of citizens using tried and tested mechanisms of imposing a power sharing agreement to preside over a transitional period during which there are key changes to the constitution and the political conduct of the incumbency and partisan institutions are weaned from seeking to perpetuate the status quo This book focuses on Zimbabwe s military and its perceived veto power in the transition to democratisation from 2008 until 2013 The objective was to analyse monitor and comment on the unique democratic transformational challenges faced by Zimbabwe s Government of National Unity One of the book s key findings is that every time partisan forces carry out an operation in the name of a political party there is a direct correlation in which the same loses its national character This is the context of the challenge facing Zimbabwean forces when used for partisan gain and why the Southern African Development Community SADC in its last communique in Maputo on 15 June 2013 sought to compel a written undertaking from the generals that they would desist from playing a direct role in the politics of the country The AU had earlier expressed its deep regret when faced with the results of serious human rights abuses that were committed with impunity

Inequality Around the World Deric Shannon,2025 This authoritative two volume set explores and explains the extent and roots of socioeconomic inequality both within and across nations Both volumes focus on examining factors that shape the dimensions and impact of those disparities

The Palgrave Handbook of Democracy, Governance and Justice in Africa Aderomola Adeola,Makau W. Mutua,2022-10-03

There is an emerging consensus that what is projected as democratic governance and justice in Africa requires a re calibration in particular in relation to the constitutive demos human rights the realisation of commitments at various governance levels and the convergence between these ideations The post colonial narrative on democracy has unveiled some crevices in rule of law political equality political participation political culture and freedom of the press Aside from the fact that these notions are threatened by some existing institutional structures these notions are increasingly being negotiated across political spaces Evident in the prevalent narrative is an imperative for Africa to assert its place on the global scene of democratic governance and justice However if this will be accomplished it is important to understand some of the issues that need to be worked through in this transition

White Narratives: The depiction of post-2000 land invasions in Zimbabwe Irikidzayi Manase,2016-12-29 The post 2000 period in Zimbabwe saw the launch of a fast track land reform programme resulting in a flurry of accounts from white Zimbabweans about how they saw the land the land invasions and their own sense of belonging and identity In White Narratives Irikidzayi Manase engages with this fervent output of texts seeking definition of experiences conflicts and ambiguities arising from the land invasions He takes us through his study of texts selected from the memoirs fictional and non fictional accounts of white farmers and other displaced white narrators on the post 2000 Zimbabwe land invasions scrutinising divisions between white and black in terms of both current and historical ideology society and spatial relationships He examines how the revisionist politics of the Zimbabwean government influenced the politics of identities and race categories during the period 2000-2008 and posits some solutions to the contestations for
