Informedness and Customer-centric Revenue Management Ting Li,2009 The recent pervasive adoption of modern IT in the marketplace has profoundly changed information availability to customers and firms This improved information endowment results in changes in consumer behavior and corporate strategy This dissertation proposes new theoretical perspectives firm informedness customer informedness and informedness through learning to re conceptualize the decision making process of customer centric revenue management It consists of three studies First using multiple cases in which firms adopt smart cards and mobile technologies in America Europe and Asia we examine the value creation process of the firm using the explanation of firm informedness and investigate how it advances revenue management Second we test the theory of consumer informedness and examine heterogeneity in consumer preferences using stated choice experiments We find the evidence for trading down and trading out behavior and show that the use of mobile ticketing technologies can help firms to build a hyper differentiated transport market Finally using a computational simulation we explore the opportunity for devising service offerings to capture profitable consumer responses considering demand driven revenue and capacity management Overall this research introduces methods models and guidelines for organizations to strategize the informational challenge make informed decisions and create transformational values to win in today s competitive network environment Risk, Relative Standing and Property Rights Ping Qin,2009 Environment & Planning A. ,2007-07

Environment & Planning ,2010 Proceedings of the Sawtooth Software Conference ,2006 Pricing Perspectives Sandra Rothenberger, Florian Siems,2008-11-03 The world of pricing has been changing at a fast pace There has been a development of new dynamic pricing strategies an explosion of new pricing tactics and a focus on smarter buyers This book focuses on those developments and highlights new perspectives for pricing strategies Valuing Complex Natural Resource Systems Anna Alberini, Paolo Rosato, Margherita Turvani,2006 In complex natural resource systems modifications or disruptions tend to affect many and diverse components of the ecological system settlements and groups of people This book uses the Lagoon of Venice a unique natural resource wildlife habitat centre of cultural heritage and recreational site as an example of one such system that has been heavily affected by human activities including the harvesting of natural resources and industrial production The contributors explore the Lagoon s potential for regeneration examining public policies currently under consideration The aim of these policies is to restore island coastlines and marshes fish stocks habitat and environmental quality defend morphology and landscape through the strict control of fishing practices and to protect the islands from high tides Various market and non market approaches placing a monetary value on environmental quality changes are then analysed by the contributors They offer novel and creative applications of non market valuation techniques for the Lagoon and even outline the trade offs that Lagoon users and parties interested in redeveloping contaminated sites are prepared to make between their own profits and policy offerings or demands This unique and fascinating book will strongly appeal to students researchers and academics with an interest in natural resources valuation and management environmental economics and applied benefit cost analysis Exploring the Efficiency and Effectiveness of Payments
