Reconstruction and Development Programme African National Congress,1994 The reconstruction and development programme ,1996 The Reconstruction of Development Programme ,19?? South Africa in Transition Aletta J. Norval,David Howarth,2016-07-27 South Africa in Transition utilises new theoretical perspectives to describe and explain central dimensions of the democratic transition in South Africa during the late 1980s and early 1990s covering changes in the politics of gender and education the political discourses of the ANC NP and the white right constructions of identity in South Africa s black townships and rural areas the role of political violence in the transition and accounts of the democratization process itself Poverty, Social Policies and the Reconstruction and Development Programme Pieter J. Du P. Le Roux,1995 Climate Change and Sustainable Urban Development in Africa and Asia Belinda Yuen,Asfaw Kumssa,2010-11-22 This book is about African and Asian cities Illustrated through selected case cities the book brings together a rich collection of papers by leading scholars and practitioners in Africa and Asia to offer empirical analysis and up to date discussions and assessments of the urban challenges and solutions for their cities A number of key topics concerning housing sustainable urban development and climate change in Africa and Asia are explored along with how policy interventions and partnerships deliver specific forms of urban development It is intended for all who are interested in the state of the cities and urban development in Africa and Asia Africa and Asia present in many ways useful lessons in dealing with the burgeoning urban population and the problems surrounding this influx of people and climate change in the developing world Report of the Annual Meeting of the South African Association for the Advancement of Science ,1997

Civil Society, Participatory Governance, and Decent Work Objectives Konstantinos Papadakis,2006 The present study presents the findings of an in depth research project carried out at the International Institute for Labour Studies from 2002 to 2005 designed to better understand how civil society organizations working within participatory governance structures may contribute to the goals of the ILO decent work agenda The author examines the South African experience Since the mid 1990s South Africa has become a centre of innovation in public policy making and implementation and it is hard to find a country in either the developed or developing world that has gone further in the institutionalization of participatory policy making processes in a range of different fields This study focuses on three areas all relevant to the decent work agenda Employment creation and poverty alleviation health care and HIV AIDS and child labour and examines the participatory processes set up at the national level in order to formulate and implement policies in these areas It draws on both a literature review and the perceptions of key policy actors active in these three areas Legal Protection of Foreign Direct Investment. A Critical Assessment with Focus on South Africa and Zimbabwe Talkmore Chidede,2016-06-02 This study undertakes a critical assessment of the legal protection of foreign direct investments FDI in South Africa and Zimbabwe by determining their compliance with the international minimum standards norms and or best practices on the legal protection of FDI by host states Firstly the study argues that foreign investment is much needed in South Africa and Zimbabwe to improve economic growth and development to create jobs and to increase their competitiveness However these benefits are not accrued automatically but rather host states need to create an enabling environment to receive such benefits Thus host states need to put an investment scheme into operation to guarantee the legal protection of foreign investments South Africa and Zimbabwe have at large crafted and implemented investment laws and related policies which tend to be hostile towards foreign investments Therefore similar investment laws and related policies in both jurisdictions are analysed This study will also offer recommendations for a legal investment which is not only flexible friendly and favourable to foreign investment in South Africa and Zimbabwe but also advances their local economic policies
