Training for Group Experience Alfred Dwight Sheffield, 1929 Through the Columbia University Extension accordingly there was planned a semester of study of group leadership to be conducted by Professor Harrison S Elliott and members of the Inquiry staff The students were to be drawn from the cooperating bodies and were to meet the following requirements 1 They should show some promise of group leadership 2 They should secure field work in discussion leading with groups connected with their own agencies The course was carried out in the spring semester February 2 to May 21 1927 with sixty eight students The results of their cooperation have been such that the Inquiry is now under request from many quarters to continue the enterprise as a piece of educational pioneering especially addressed to the complex institutional life of our day Before committing itself however to repeat this special service the Inquiry offers the present booklet by way of interpreting the project believing the resources for developing it to be now so promising that other educational agencies will be encouraged to take it up for the scientific advancement of group experience in all parts of the country Preface PsycINFO Database Record c 2015 APA all rights reserved

ESD Program Management G. Theodore Dangelmayer, 2012-12-06 In today's electronics business managing an ESD program is an integral part of a complete quality program In fact any electronics firm without an active ESD program puts itself and its customers at risk This book illustrates one good example of the detail and dedication to quality that AT T expects within its own operations and from its suppliers Writing of the book began at a time when Ted Dangelmayer was burdened with many demands These demands were from AT T's own operations internal suppliers external suppliers customers and others looking for a better understanding of the phenomenon of ESD its impact and most of all ways to control and manage it In a way this book is a response to these demands by making available a reader friendly document that distills the hard won experiences of Ted and AT T The information and methods in this book have been gained at no small cost and produce results that far exceed eXtensions There is however a caveat Success will not be obtained unless there is real management commitment This means management must allocate the necessary resources and provide active support to ensure that training auditing reporting tracking and an aggressive corrective action program all take place successfully Ted is an internationally recognized authority and you will benefit greatly by listening to his advice and following his recommendations
