All the Year Round ,1878 The British Army of the Rhine Peter Speiser,2016-05-30 Between 1945 and 1957 West Germany made a dizzying pivot from Nazi bastion to Britain's Cold War ally against the Soviet Union Successive London governments though often faced with bitter public and military opposition tasked the British Army of the Rhine BAOR to serve as a protecting force while strengthening West German integration into the Western defense structure Peter Speiser charts the BAOR's fraught transformation from occupier to ally by looking at the charged nexus where British troops and their families interacted with Germany's civilian population Examining the relationship on many levels Speiser ranges from how British mass media representations of Germany influenced BAOR troops to initiatives taken by the Army to improve relations He also weighs German perceptions surveying clashes between soldiers and civilians and comparing the popularity of the British services with that of the other occupying powers As Speiser shows the BAOR's presence did not improve the relationship between British servicemen and the German populace but it did prevent further deterioration during a crucial and dangerous period of the early Cold War An incisive look at an under researched episode The British Army of the Rhine sheds new light on Anglo German diplomatic political and social relations after 1945 and evaluates their impact on the wider context of European integration in the postwar era Unpatriotic History of the Second World War James Hartfield,2012-09-28 Sixty million people died in the Second World War and still they tell us it was the Peoples War The official history of the Second World War is Victors History This is the history of the Second World War without the patriotic whitewash The Second World War was not fought to stop fascism or to liberate Europe It was a war between imperialist powers to decide which among them would rule over the world a division of the spoils of empire and an iron cage for working people enslaved to the war production drive The unpatriotic history of the Second World War explains why the Great Powers fought most of their war not in their own countries but in colonies in North Africa in the Far East and in Germanys hoped for Empire in the East Find out how wildcat strikes partisans in Europe and Asia and soldiers mutinies came close to ending the war And find out how the Allies invaded Europe and the Far East to save capitalism from being overthrown James Heartfield challenges the received wisdom of the Second World War Sessional Papers Ontario.
