Minorities and State-Building in the Middle East Paolo Maggiolini, Idir Ouahes, 2020-10-19 This book offers fresh insights to enhance and diversify our understanding of the modern history of the state and societies in today's Jordan while also providing examples of why and how scholars can challenge the static and discursively government minded approaches to minorities and minoritisation especially the traditional emphasis on demographic balances Despite its small size and initial appearance of homogeneity Jordan provides an excellent case of a dynamic relational historically contingent and fluid approach to ethnic political and religious minorities in the context of the imposition of a modern state system on complex and varied traditional societies The editors and contributors present dynamic and relational perspectives on the status of and historical processes involved in the creation and absorption of minority groups within Jordan

Peacemaking in the Middle East Paul Marantz, Janice Gross Stein, 2016-07-22 This book first published in 1985 examines the whole problem of peacemaking in the Arab Israel conflict It considers the different countries involved the changing positions they have adopted over time and the range of opinion within each country It looks at the role of the superpowers and shows how their vacillations and their viewing of the conflict in simple terms as part of the global superpower rivalry have been unfortunate It examines how a typical uncommitted medium power Canada can contribute to peace in very many ways though it may not achieve a breakthrough

Democratic World, 1989 Handbook of Political Science Research on the Middle East and North Africa Bernard Reich, 1998-05-21 Facilitating research on Middle Eastern and North African politics this volume is a major reference work A series of chapters describe the post World War II research on the politics of the states and of the Palestinians of the region The literature on international relations of the region is reviewed and the approach to political economy is discussed Written by the foremost experts on their respective subjects the chapters also identify the gaps in the literature and fruitful areas for future research The chapter references constitute a bibliographical treasure for those seeking to study the politics of the region Annotations enable the reader to better select works for further research This volume provides a complete analysis of the state of the field an agenda for future research and a detailed annotated bibliography of the best research published

Worlding and Storying Forced Displacement Anne Ring Petersen, 2025-12-20 The question of how refugees are to be hosted and represented in Europe is not only an urgent one but a persistent one Drawing on art history migration studies and postmigration studies Anne Ring Petersen examines contemporary artistic representations of forced displacement She argues that artistic and curatorial practices can help foster cultural citizenship among refugees and asylum seekers as well as deepening the understanding of refugeedom in host countries through art s worldmaking and storytelling capacities Focusing on Denmark and including a chapter on Palestine this study adds new perspectives to postmigration studies and a pioneering exploration of understudied material to art history Journal of Palestine Studies ,1987 South ,1987 Cross-cultural Rehabilitation Ronnie Linda Leavitt,1999 Resource added for the Physical Therapist Assistant program 105241 Political Power and Social Theory Julian Go,2012-09-06 As economic stagnation freezes the globe capitalism is increasingly questioned war revolution and political instability unsettles the Middle East and President Obama s campaign for the Presidency looms Volume 23 of Political Power and Social Theory reflects on these and related issues and whether the concept of capitalism should be problemat Bibliographie Mensuelle. Partie I, Livres, Documents Officiels, Publications en Série United Nations Library (Geneva, Switzerland),1988 The Palestinian People Baruch Kimmerling,Joel S. Migdal,2003 In a timely reminder of how the past informs the present Baruch Kimmerling and Joel Migdal offer an authoritative account of the history of the Palestinian people from their modern origins to the Oslo peace process and beyond Palestinians struggled to create themselves as a people from the first revolt of the Arabs in Palestine in 1834 through the British Mandate to the impact of Zionism and the founding of Israel Their relationship with the Jewish people and the State of Israel has been fundamental in shaping that identity and today Palestinians find themselves again at a critical juncture In the 1990s cornerstones for peace were laid for eventual Palestinian Israeli coexistence including mutual acceptance the renunciation of violence as a permanent strategy and the establishment for the first time of Palestinian self government But the dawn of the twenty first century saw a reversion to unmitigated hatred and mutual demonization By mid 2002 the brutal violence of the Intifada had crippled Palestine s fledgling political institutions and threatened the fragile social cohesion painstakingly constructed after 1967 Kimmerling and Migdal unravel what went right and what went wrong in the Oslo peace process and what lessons we can draw about the forces that help to shape a people The authors present a balanced insightful and sobering look at the realities of creating peace in the Middle East The Economist ,2008 Postmodernism, Music and Cultural Theory David Bennett,2009 Demonstrates how theories of postmodernism as incredulity toward grand narrative speak to musical history and aesthetics This book illustrates how music has figured centrally in poststructuralist theory and can itself open up fresh perspectives for reassessing that theory Human Rights Internet Reporter ,1987 The Geographical Magazine Michael Huxley,1988 Vols for 19 include a separate section called GM news and reviews World Refugee Survey ,1994 The Nonviolent Coming of God James W.
