Communicating in the Anthropocene C. Vail Fletcher,Alexa M. Dare,2021-02-04 The purpose of Communicating in the Anthropocene Intimate Relations is to tell a different story about the world Humans especially those raised in Western traditions have long told stories about themselves as individual protagonists who act with varying degrees of free will against a background of mute supporting characters and inert landscapes Humans can be either saviors or destroyers but our actions are explained and judged again and again as emanating from the individual And yet as the coronavirus pandemic has made clear humans are unavoidably interconnected not only with other humans but with nonhuman and more than human others with whom we share space and time Why do so many of us humans avoid deny or resist a view of the world where our lives are made possible maybe even made richer through connection In this volume we suggest a view of communication as intimacy We use this concept as a provocation for thinking about how we humans are in an always already state of being in relation with other humans nonhumans and the land

Albrecht Dürer and the Venetian Renaissance Katherine Crawford Lubet,Albrecht Dürer,2005-05-30 Albrecht D rer and the Venetian Renaissance examines twenty five paintings by the German artist in an effort to reevaluate his relationship to contemporary Italian art and his status as a painter Providing a technical analysis of these works Katherine Crawford Lubet explains how D rer appropriated Venetian techniques and suggests that the artist was engaged in the exploration of an atmospheric coloristic perspective Lubet also demonstrates how the Venetian alternative to scientific perspective was integrated not only in D rer s late paintings but also in his later graphic oeuvre which necessitates a reassessment of the critical partition of his painted and graphic work Emphasizing D rer s careful working methods Luber argues that technique is an interpretable and critically important aspect of art works that should be integrated into mainstream art historical studies Take One ,1978 ESQ. ,1986 LADOC. ,1993 *Israel's watchman (and prophetic expositor) [afterw.] The prophetic news and Israel's watchman, ed. by A.
