Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015 (Volume 4) Union of International Associations, 2014-09-17. The Yearbook of International Organizations provides the most extensive coverage of non-profit international organizations currently available. Detailed profiles of international non-governmental and intergovernmental organizations (IGO) collected and documented by the Union of International Associations can be found here. In addition to the history, aims, and activities of international organizations, with their events, publications, and contact details, the volumes of the Yearbook include networks between associations, biographies of key people involved, and extensive statistical data. Providing both an international organizations and research bibliography, Volume 4 cites over 46,000 publications and information resources supplied by international organizations and provides nearly 18,000 research citations under 40 subject headings. This volume also includes a research bibliography on international organizations and transnational associations.

The Economic Geography of the Tourist Industry Keith G. Debbage, Dimitri Ioannides, 1998-04-02. The Economic Geography of the Tourist Industry bridges the gap between tourism research and economic geography by bringing together leading academics in geography, planning, and tourism. The authors explain tourism's definitions and examine whether tourism can be categorized as an industry. They provide detailed analyses of key sectors such as tourism.

China and the Knowledge Economy Carl J. Dahlman, Jean-Eric Aubert, 2001. Annotation. Argues that in order to address the growing economic, social, and political pressures of the 21st Century, China will have to build solid foundations for a knowledge-based economy by updating the economic and institutional regime, upgrading education and learning, and building information infrastructure.
