Women Write Back:

Women Writing Back / Writing Women Back Anke Gilleir, Alicia A. Montoya, Suzanna van Dijk, 2010 Privileging both a transnational and a sociological approach this volume explores the position of women in the early modern literary field emphasising the international scope of their literature and examining their historical position influence network and dialogues Women Writing Back / Writing Women Back, 2010-05-25 Interest in early modern women writers is on the rise However familiarity with their works varies greatly from one country to another and resources to assess their historical significance remain insufficient Yet empirical evidence suggests that women writers who are no longer well known today played surprisingly varied roles in the literary field of early modern Europe The papers collected in this volume address early modern female authorship from the late Middle Ages to the end of the eighteenth century ranging geographically from Portugal to Russia and from Italy to Denmark In particular they focus on three themes the creation of female spaces or communities women s appropriation of existing or developing literary genres and transnational perspectives on early modern women s writings Contributors include Vanda Anast cio Bernadette Andrea M nica Bolufer Philiep Bossier Hans Bots Kathleen Garay Nina Geerdink Perry Gethner Elena Gretchanaia Ineke Janse Madeleine Jeay Anne Marie Mai Christine Mongenot Meredith Ray Ina Schabert and Lynn Lara Westwater Arab Women's Lives Retold Nawar Al-Hassan Golley, 2007-10-18 Examining late twentieth century autobiographical writing by Arab women novelists poets and artists this essay collection explores the ways in which Arab women have portrayed and created their identities within differing social environments The collection goes well beyond dismantling standard notions of Arab female subservience exploring the many ways Arab women writers have learned to speak to each other to their readers and to the world at large Drawing from a rich body of literature the essays attest to the surprisingly lively and committed roles Arab women play in varied geographic regions at home and abroad These recent writings assess how the interplay between individual private ethnic identity and the collective public global world of politics has impacted Arab women s rights Diasporic Women's Writing of the Black Atlantic Emilia María Durán-Almarza, Esther Álvarez López, 2013-10-30 This book brings together a complete set of approaches to works by female authors that articulate the black Atlantic in relation to the interplay of race class and gender The chapters provide the grounds to en gender a more complex understanding of the scattered geographies of the African diaspora in the Atlantic basin The variety of approaches displayed bears witness to the vitality of a field that over the years has become a diasporic formation itself as it incorporates critical insights and theoretical frameworks from multiple disciplines in the social sciences and the humanities thus exposing the manifold character of black diasporic interconnections within and beyond the Atlantic Focusing on a wide array of contemporary literary and performance texts by women writers and performers from diverse locations including the Caribbean Canada Africa the US and the UK chapters visit genres such as performance art the novel science fiction short stories and music For these purposes the volume is organized around two significant dimensions of diasporas on the one hand the material corporeal and spatial locations where those displacements associated with travel and exile occur and on the other the fluid environments and networks that connect distant places cultures and times This collection explores the ways in which women of African descent shape the cultures and histories in the modern colonial and postcolonial Atlantic worlds

Transforming Memories in Contemporary Women's Rewriting L. Plate, 2010-12-08 Including topics as diverse as feminism and its relationship to the marketplace plagiarism and copyright silence and forgetting and myth in a digital age this book explores the role of rewriting within feminist literature from the 1970s onwards in relation to the theme of cultural memory

Legacies and Lifespans in Contemporary Women's Writing Gina Wisker, Leanne Bibby, Heidi Yeandle, 2023-07-03 This book examines the connections and conversations between women writers from the twentieth century and the twenty first century The essays consider the ways in which twenty first century women writers look back and respond to their predecessors within the field of contemporary women s writing The book looks back to the foundations of contemporary women s writing and also considers how this category may be defined in future decades We ask how writers and readers have interpreted the contemporary a moving target and an often contentious term especially in light of feminist theory and criticism of the late twentieth century Writing about the relationships between women s writings is an always vital ongoing political project with a rich history These essays argue that establishing and defining the contemporary is for women writers another ongoing political project to which this collection of essays aims in part to contribute
