Wind Blown Stories:

Wind Blown Stories Ethel Owen, Frank Owen, 1930      Windblown Édouard Manceau, 2012 Where did all these pieces of paper come from Who do they belong to The chicken is sure that they belong to him but so is the fish and so is the bird and the snail and the frog Using the same small scraps of paper over and over again to create a new animal on each page douard Manceau has created a timeless cumulative tale that will delight and enchant children as they try to figure out just who the pieces of paper do belong to      What the Wind Blew in Marilyn B. Wassmann, Pretend that the WIND blew these by Yet know in truth that it was I The author and artist capturing tales with lines Creating couplets and shapes that celebrate rhyme Tis a joy to write in verse I ve found So please enjoy these words and sounds      What the Wind Blew in Marilyn B. Wassmann, 2010-01-01      Short Stories William Thomson Hastings, Benjamin Croker Clough, Kenneth Oliver Mason, 1924
The Native American Story Book Stories Of The American Indians For Children G.W. Mullins, 2018-01-27 Through storytelling the rich history of the Native American tribes is alive and well today It has been shared and preserved and still pays tribute to fallen heroes of the past It is through these glimpses into the past and these stories much like the ones that are contained in this book that you can see what a proud heritage they possess and how in tune with the Earth Native Americans really are Stories included in Volume One are How the Terrapin Beat the Rabbit How the Deer got his Horns Why the Turkey Gobblers How the Redbird got his Color The Bear Man The Man in the Stump Determination of Night and Day The Lost Cherokee The Legend of the Cedar Tree The First Moccasins The Legend of the Apache Tear The Gift of the Peace Pipe Brother of the Moon Teepee Etiquette and many many more With this book I hope you understand the Native American people a little better and understand where they have come from and what they can offer the world By exploring these stories I offer you a glimpse into an often forgotten past The past of my people I was born Cherokee and as a child heard many of these stories These stories were passed to me in the old traditional way by my grandfather And now I give these stories to you to carry forward for younger generations to explore and learn      The Wind Blew Pat Hutchins, 1998      A Bedtime Full of Stories Angela McAllister, 2021-11-09 A Bedtime Full of Stories is a richly illustrated compendium that collects magical tales from around the world from well known classics to lesser known treasures      The Story of a Boy! John Dwight Marchalleck, 2017-11-14 The Story of a Boy By John Dwight Marchalleck John Dwight Marchalleck was born in the parish of St Andrew Jamaica At the age of three his mother migrated to the U S A and his new guardian parents her mom and dad became the main lifelong influence for John as reflected in The Story of a Boy John was a happy child growing up with his grandmother and grandfather In this book he reflects on hardships like drought affecting his hometown mountain village from time to time His farmer grandfather and philanthropic grandmother were his primary tutors and idols His grandfather was a storyteller who provided candy for the village children who stopped by to visit and listen Like many grandchildren John was sent away to boarding school and later to attend high school in Kingston but continued to communicate with them through written letters a habit encouraged by his grandma While in high school his fondness for writing was also reflected by mystery stories John wrote and were aired on JBC Jamaica Broadcasting Corporation That earned the boy extra pocket money But this fostered bad habits as John began to frequent the billiard halls in Kingston which prevented him from going home directly after school This was reported to the headmaster who meted out fifty page homework essays for John in lieu of other detention to curb the boy s after school bad habits This enhanced John s appetite more for writing however rather than stop him playing billiards or frequenting the pool halls the boy could effortlessly produce written assignments on most given topics free of grammatical errors In 1963 John migrated and joined his biological mom in the U S A Later as a student at the Benjamin Franklin School of Accounting and Finance in Washington D C John worked and published articles in both the National Geographic Society s School and News Services A long drought in writing from John came however but now The Story of a Boy can be happily shared with the world
