Community and Critique Sara C. VanderHaagen, 2025-09-25. How Black American women have uplifted Black communities and critiqued dominant white memories. In Community and Critique, Sara C. VanderHaagen analyzes Black women's memory work, a deliberate public effort to create, preserve, revise, and circulate accounts of the past to strengthen community bonds and effect change. VanderHaagen draws from the resources of rhetorical studies, public memory studies, and Black feminism to examine key examples of Black women's memory work during the critical historical period between Reconstruction and the Harlem Renaissance. These instances include public addresses about exemplary women, speeches given at the 1893 World's Congress of Representative Women, the 1923 campaign against the Black Mammy monument that was proposed for creation in Washington, DC, and the 1926 biography collection Homespun Heroines and Other Women of Distinction. Responding to a call by Black feminist scholars to move beyond recovery toward deeper engagement with Black women's intellectual and rhetorical work, Community and Critique centers the memory work of Black American women to demonstrate the significant, if underexamined, role that they played in shaping our shared past.

A Social History of Late Ottoman Women Duygu Köksal, Anastasia Falierou, 2013-10-10. In A Social History of the Late Ottoman Women: New Perspectives, Duygu Köksal and Anastasia Falierou bring together new research on women of different geographies and communities of the late Ottoman Empire. Making use of archives, literary works, diaries, newspapers, almanacs, art works, or cartoons, the contributors focus particularly on the ways in which women gained power and exercised agency in late Ottoman Empire and early Republican Turkey. The articles convincingly show that women's agency cannot be unearthed without narrating how women were involved in shaping their own and others' lives, even in the most unexpected areas of their existence. The women's activities described here do not simply reflect modernizing trends or westernizing attitudes or their defensive denial. They provide an array of local responses where the local can never be found and should never be conceptualized in its initial, unchanged, or authentic state.
