Diversity Counts Anne Dymond,2019-06-03 Despite the common belief that art galleries will naturally become more gender equitable over time the fact is that many art institutions in Canada have become even less so over the last decade with female artists making up less than 25 per cent of the contemporary exhibitions of several major galleries In the first large scale overview of gender diversity in Canadian art exhibitions Anne Dymond makes a persuasive plea for more consciously equitable curating Drawing on data from nearly one hundred institutions Diversity Counts reveals that while some galleries are relatively equitable many continue to marginalize female and racialized artists The book pursues an interdisciplinary approach considering the art world s resistance to numeric data discourses on representation and identity changing conceptualizations of institutional responsibility over time and different ways particular institutions manage inclusion and exclusion A thoughtful examination of the duty of public galleries to represent underserved communities Dymond s study bravely navigates the unspoken criteria for acceptance in the curatorial world Demonstrating how important hard data is for inclusivity Diversity Counts is a timely analysis that brings the art world up to date on progressive movements for social transformation Art Now ,2002 LA Artland Chris Kraus,Jane McFadden,Jan Tumlir,2005 LA Artland is a survey of one of the most vibrant and influential art scenes of recent decades Having produced world renowned artists such as Mike Kelley Paul McCarthy Chris Burden Catherine Opie and Jim Shaw Los Angeles since the 90s has superceded New York as the US contemporary art capital With the continuing success of LA based art programmes at CalArts Art Center and UCLA as well as a growing gallery scene stretching from blue chip to artist run spaces the Los Angeles art scene continues to thrive producing increasingly successful generations of artists The focus of this publication is on extensive visual documentation of contemporary artists working in Los Angeles now ranging from well established international names to emerging talent Alongside this visual survey there are three essays An essay by Jane McFadden art historian currently teaching at Art Center traces specific trajectories between artists living and working in Los Angeles from the 60s to today forming a unique history of the area Los Angeles commenting on current trends and the influence of the LA based MFA programmes A third essay by Chris Kraus author of Video Green incorporates interviews with new artists and gallery owners providing insight into the network of sub scenes that make up contemporary LA art Art/Basel/Miami Beach ,2009
