in early Christianity has long focused on themes of theological doctrine on the one hand and anthropology on the other Doctrinal study has generally concentrated on the rise of Trinitarian language and Christological questions while anthropological studies explore early perceptions of human nature sin and redemption This has produced standard chronologies of doctrine dividing early Christian history into distinct if interrelated periods of history in the development of these views Building on current scholarship this volume re assesses such an approach to early patristic study through a sustained investigation of anthropology and theology as a single project in the fathers Taking Irenaeus of Lyons Tertullian of Carthage Cyril of Jerusalem and Athanasius of Alexandria as chief examples of the period it explores how concentration on the human provides the context and lens through which doctrinal questions are articulated Assessing theology as anthropology as the approach to doctrines of God through understandings of the human creative insight is gleaned into refined developments of trinitarian thought far earlier than Nicaea and advanced reflections on the divinity of the Holy Spirit long before Constantinople The nature of humanity as in the image of God takes on a fresh potency when it is approached not only as a window on the human but the means by which the human reveals the nature of God Symposium on Creation (JCR Vol. 1 No. 1) R. J. Rushdoony,Greg Bahnsen,Charles Clough,Bolton Davidheiser,George Howe,Roger Wagner,Dennis Johnson,Walter Lammerts,Stuart Nevins,Gary North,Vern Pythress,Cornelius Van Til,2019-03-19 Specifics concerning creation are officially relegated into the realm of things indifferent to salvation or the life of the church Various perspectives serve as popular alternatives to the six day creation within circles that still concern themselves with the question of biblical inerrancy Systematic Theology Dr. Althea C. Johnson,2023-07-13 About the Book Systematic Theology sometimes referred to as Constructive Theology or Dogmatic Theology is a discipline which aims at arranging religious truths into a self consistent whole The main goal of Systematic Theology is to present the major themes of Christian faith in an ordered fashion that remains faithful to biblical witness Systematic Theology incorporates historical biblical and sometimes philosophical theology into its system The book Systematic Theology takes out major events in the Bible and arranges them in a sequential order from beginning to end so readers may have a better understanding of biblical features mentioned in the Bible It goes into a deep analysis of certain topics surrounding God the church and the world we know today It is author Dr Althea C Johnson s goal with the guidance of God to break down events in the Bible that may seem incomprehensible to those who have some or no knowledge of Systematic Theology About the Author Dr Althea C Johnson was born in St Ann Jamaica She currently resides in Laurelton New York She is happily married to her husband Leroy Johnson and they share three beautiful children together and one grandson She has a special love for God and plays an active role in her church Holiness Apostolic Church of Lord Jesus Christ Upon receiving her Doctorate in Theology she became an Evangelism teacher at the Holiness Apostolic Bible Institute Althea wrote this book during her doctoral studies and chose to publish this book because she learned so much from doing her research and putting all of the pieces all together She believes that the work of God should not be hidden but shared with everyone in all parts of the world Therefore publishing this book will not only be educational to readers but it will also spread the truth of God

Systematic Theology Louis Berkhof, 1949-01-01 Now that my Systematic Theology is again being reprinted the Preface can be very brief It is not necessary to say much about the nature of the work since it has been before the public for more than fifteen years and has been used extensively I have every reason to be grateful for its kind reception for the favorable testimony of many reviewers and for the fact that the book is now used as a textbook in many Theological Seminaries and Bible Schools in our country and that requests were even received from abroad for permission to translate it into other languages These are blessings which I had not anticipated and for which I am deeply grateful to God To Him be all the honor And if the work may continue to be a blessing in many sections of the Church of Jesus Christ it will but increase my recognition of the abundant grace of God

Rejected of Men Howard Pyle, 1903 THIS is the story of the scribes pharisees priests and Levites and of certain Romans It is intended as a phase of that divine history already told to the world but now told from another stand point and translated from the ancient Hebrew habits of life into modern American so that the reader may more readily understand the circumstances that directed our actions If it has been told aright he may see why it was that we crucified the Truth We scribes and pharisees have been vilified and abused for nineteen hundred years because we acted as the circumstances of our lives compelled us The fact seems to be overlooked that we were not born publicans and sinners but upright and virtuous citizens and that it was out of the question for us to desert our own class and to ally ourselves with those whose only recommendation appeared to lie in the fact that they were poor and lowly or else that they were social outcasts and sinners We could hardly be held to have been more worthy of respect if we had violated our traditions of order and of virtue to accept an entirely new code of ethics supported by such advocates which code if carried out meant the overthrow of all that we held most sacred and worthy of preservation
