The Defection Of A J Lewinter:

The Defection of A.J. Lewinter Robert Littell, 2025-03-11 A new edition of the spy classic by Robert Littell New York Times bestselling master of the espionage thriller The black comedy follows a pawn in the American military complex whose decision to change sides might determine the outcome of the Cold War An engineer who spent most of his career studying ceramic nose cones for ballistic missiles American scientist A J Lewinter is used to being a cog in the military industrial complex until while at a conference in Tokyo he rushes into the Russian Embassy offering to defect Hard edged US intelligence operative Leo Diamond sets out to determine what if anything Lewinter knows on the Soviet side KGB agent Yefgeny Pogodin must decipher whether this high level defection is another ruse in a long standing war Neither global superpower knows what to expect from Lewinter the wild card but both sides know this If he's telling the truth his information could be the final turning point in the Cold War A darkly funny spy thriller from one of the most brilliant voices of espionage fiction The Defection of A J Lewinter is a shockingly prescient portrayal of international politics The Triumph of the Thriller Patrick Anderson, 2007-02-06 There's been a revolution in American popular fiction The writers who dominated the bestseller lists a generation ago with blockbuster novels about movie stars and exotic foreign lands have been replaced by a new generation writing a new kind of bestseller one that hooks readers with crime suspense and ever increasing violence Patrick Anderson The Washington Post's man on the thriller beat calls this revolution the triumph of the thriller and lists among its stars Thomas Harris Michael Connelly George Pelecanos Dennis Lehane Sue Grafton and Elmore Leonard In his provocative caustic and often hilarious survey of today's popular fiction Anderson shows us who the best thriller writers are and the worst He shows how Michael Connelly was inspired by Raymond Chandler how George Pelecanos toiled in obscurity while he mastered his craft how Sue Grafton created the first great woman private eye and how Thomas Harris transformed an insane cannibal into the charming man of the world who made FBI agent Clarice Starling his lover Anderson shows Scott Turow inventing the modern legal thriller and John Grisham translating it into a stunning series of bestsellers He casts a cold eye on Tom Clancy's militaristic techno thrillers and praises Alan Furst and Robert Littell as world class spy novelists He examines the pioneering role of Lawrence Sanders the offbeat appeal of Dean Koontz the unprecedented success of The Da Vinci Code and the emergence of the literary thriller Most of all Anderson demands that the best of these novelists be given their due not as genre writers but as some of the most talented men and women at work in American fiction Don't trust the literary elites to tell you what to read he warns make up your own minds The Triumph of the Thriller will convince many readers that we've entered an important new era in popular fiction This book can be your guide to it

The Palgrave Handbook of Cold War Literature Andrew Hammond, 2020-09-04 This book offers a comprehensive guide to global literary engagement with the Cold War Eschewing the common focus on national cultures the collection defines Cold War literature as an international current focused on the military and ideological conflicts of the age and characterised by styles and approaches that transcended national borders Drawing on specialists from across the world the volume analyses the period s fiction poetry drama and autobiographical writings in three sections dominant concerns socialism decolonisation nuclearism propaganda censorship espionage common genres postmodernism socialism realism dystopianism migrant poetry science fiction testimonial writing and regional cultures Asia Africa Oceania Europe and the Americas In doing so the volume forms a landmark contribution to Cold War literary studies which will appeal to all those working on literature of the 1945 1989 period including specialists in comparative literature postcolonial literature contemporary literature and regional literature
