Icon David Mutschlecner,2018 Poetry ICON is a vivid example of David Mutschlecner s theopoetics offering devotion to the divine to poets and to the earth and materiality itself it is supernatural that language lifts the tree he writes and the gold ground holds the halo whose gold bleeds back into the ground The icon is revealed as anyone s loved face and that beloved face can help one to know the stars half patterned by the quick breath of the brush Here in fact an icon is being written and the poem becomes an act of thanksgiving Mutschlecner upholds his devotion to the trinity of poets always close at hand in his poems Dickinson Dante and Duncan One finds the grace of bewilderment at the heart of this work
