The Native Muse Richard Ruland,1976    The Native Muse Richard Ruland,1976    Celibacies Benjamin Kahan,2013-11-25 Arguing that celibacy is a distinct sexuality with its own practices and pleasures Benjamin Kahan shows it to be much more than the renunciation of sex or a cover for homosexuality    Theocritus and his native Muse Poulheria Kyriakou,2018-10-08 Hellenistic poets opted and were very likely expected to deal meaningfully and perhaps competitively with the tradition they inherited They also needed to secure the goodwill of actual or potential patrons Apollonius the author of a novel heroic epic eschews references to literary polemics and patronage Callimachus often adopts a polemical stance against some colleagues in order to suggest his poetic excellence Theocritus chooses a third way which has not been investigated adequately He avoids antagonism but ironizes the theme of poetic excellence and distances himself from the tradition of competitive success He does not cast his narrators as superior to predecessors and contemporaries but stresses the advantages and merits of colleagues This rejection of conceit is connected with a major strand in Theocritean poetry the power of word including song to provide assistance to characters in distress is a major open issue Language is versatile and potent but not all powerful Song gives pleasure but is not a panacea while instruction and advice are never helpful and may even prove harmful Most genuine pieces are ambiguous and open ended so that the aspirations of characters are not presented as doomed to failure    The Muse's Flight, and Other Serious Poems Robert Richardson,1837    The Timid Leaper Gregg G. Brown,2002-06-25 Catastrophes and Trophies This collection is actually the combination and slight rearrangement of four separate volumes of verse almost all of these poems were written in the calendar year 2001 It s not much to show for a year of human life that rich mystery we are twisted into by such a resolute hand The main emphasis of this collection as I hope will be quite clear is Nature Nature and Naturalism are not quite the same thing however and I have always had my own disagreements with the various proponents of those who took too dogmatically Thoreau s painful premise Simplify simplify simplify The sub title is inner nature poems and that is to help show that the weather for humans is never merely a matter of what s over our heads it s what s in our hearts as well from the Introduction    History of Indigenous Education in the Panjab Since Annexation and in 1882 Gottlieb William Leitner,1883    The Manhattan ,1883    Humanistic Studies University of Iowa,1928    The Bards of Angus and the Mearns Alan Reid,1897    The Genius and Character of Robert Burns, an Essay and Criticism on His Life and Writings, with Quotations from the Best Passages John Wilson,1872    Deep Time Noah Heringman,2023-01-03 Deep Time A Literary History challenges the exclusive association between deep time and the modern science of geology by focusing on late Enlightenment writings that used narrative form to integrate new empirical data and methods with Western and non Western traditions of chronology earth history and human origins Choosing the mid eighteenth century as a starting point Heringman aims to demonstrate how deep time became associated with Earth history in the first place expanding its conceptual domain to include colonial natural history oral tradition and scientific romance all frontiers of the expanded time horizons associated with modernity It considers the conceptual opening of a modern geological timescale in literary scientific and travel writing in the late Enlightenment Romantic period with chapters on the explorer naturalist team of John Reinhold and George Forster who sailed with Captain Cook 1772 1775 Buffon s protogeochronological Epochs of Nature 1778 Herder Blake and prehistory through oral tradition and Charles Darwin s dialogue with anthropology and archaeology especially in The Descent of Man 1871 When eighteenth and nineteenth century explorers naturalists poets and philosophers wrote about the abyss of time they referred to a large and diverse set of new ideas that unsettled the established time scale ideas about cultural evolution inspired by Pacific peoples recently encountered by James Cook and other voyagers a new sense of the depth and diversity of the Earth s strata produced by increased attention to their structure and deposition the study of oral traditions by poets and scholars associated with the ballad revival and the study of non Western scriptures such as the Mahabharata which calculated time on an entirely different scale The latter two pursuits dovetailed with the investigations of voyagers from Johann Reinhold Forster to Charles Darwin who sought to measure the age of non European civilizations by way of the geological age of their environments Ultimately Heringman argues that the concept of deep time now associated primarily with modern geology was a composite of human and natural history to begin with
