The Neutrino:

The Neutrino Story: One Tiny Particle's Grand Role in the Cosmos Rabindra N. Mohapatra,2020-11-05 Every second of every day we are exposed to billions of neutrinos emitted by the Sun and yet they seem to pass straight through us with no apparent effect at all Tiny and weakly interacting this subatomic particle may be but this book will show you just how crucial a role it has played in the evolution of the elements in the universe and eventually ourselves We first start with an introduction to the basics of subatomic physics including brief backgrounds on the discoveries that set the stage for major 20th century advances The author a distinguished theoretical physicist who has researched neutrinos for over thirty years next explains in nontechnical language how and why the neutrino fits into the wider story of elementary particles Finally the reader will learn about the latest discoveries in the past half century of neutrino studies This semi popular science book will appeal to any physics students or non specialist physicists who wish to know more about the neutrino and its role in the evolution of our universe

The Neutrino. (IP-5) James Sircom Allen,2015-12-08 A complete treatise on the subject of the neutrino includes interpretation of experimental results in terms of existing theories on this nuclear particle It incorporates material on post parity experiments which appeared following the Lee and Yang discoveries in 1956 concerning parity non conservation in weak interactions Originally published in 1958 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905
