The Power of Innocence Sword Ministries,2001-01-01      The Power of Innocence Warren Hunter,2001      Power and Innocence: A Search for the Sources of Violence Rollo May,1998-03-17 Stressing the positive creative aspects of power and innocence Rollo May offers a way of thinking about the problems of contemporary society Rollo May defines power as the ability to cause or prevent change innocence on the other hand is the conscious divesting of one s power to make it seem a virtuous form of powerlessness that Dr May sees as particularly American in nature From these basic concepts he suggests a new ethic that sees power as the basis for both human goodness and evil Dr May discusses five levels of power s potential in each of us the infant s power to be self affirmation the ability to survive with self esteem self assertion which develops when self affirmation is blocked aggression a reaction to thwarted assertion and finally violence when reason and persuasion are ineffective      Becoming Good Parents Mufid James Hannush,2012-02-01 Becoming Good Parents goes beyond a psychological understanding of parenting to include a deeper explication of the philosophical moral and existential spiritual dimensions of parenting It counters the contemporary notion that parents can be satisfied with simply being good enough in their parenting practices which encourages a sense of complacency Through everyday examples illustrative use of Harper Lee s moral novel To Kill a Mockingbird and a reinterpretation of the theoretical viewpoints of psychologists Erik Erikson Heinz Kohut and Rollo May along with philosophers Iris Murdoch and Michael Gelven the author argues that the struggle toward perfection goodness is a natural human impulse Parenting provides an optimal context for the practice of character refinement which can potentially contribute to the psychological and spiritual growth of both parents and children Ultimately the book demonstrates that by becoming good parents we become good persons      Documents of the Senate of the State of New York New York (State).
