Clinical Epiphanies in Marital and Family Therapy David A Baptiste, 2014-04-23 How would you handle these situations Check your expertise against the approaches presented here This fascinating collection shows how a practicing therapist handled clients stuck in the therapeutic process Clinical Epiphanies in Marital and Family Therapy A Practitioner s Casebook of Therapeutic Insights Perceptions and Breakthroughs presents a cross section of approaches and orientations as they work in practice The families and couples discussed here have experienced a wide range of difficulties and the presenting and commenting therapists run the gamut in age gender race and theoretical orientation The serendipitous turning points presented here are all true case studies but Clinical Epiphanies in Marital and Family Therapy offers more than the chance to second guess a single therapist s handling of explosive moments Each case study is also discussed by two other therapists representing divergent points of view This point counterpoint structure allows readers to analyze the effectiveness of different therapeutic approaches and to recognize that in practice heterogeneous orientations may result in similar strategies Clinical Epiphanies in Marital and Family Therapy demonstrates the factors that contribute to doing successful therapy including ensuring that clients feel they are being treated with respect establishing a sound therapeutic relationship making successful treatment bargains moving away from your therapeutic agenda when necessary being persistent in the face of a stubborn refusal to change Clinical Epiphanies in Marital and Family Therapy offers fresh strategies for experienced practitioners beginning therapists and educators in the field of mental health

The Couple,

Marriage, and Family Practitioner Stephen V. Flynn, 2023-02-25 This textbook purposefully professionally and politically correctly covers CACREP standards and COAMFTE key elements and brings awareness to the application of systemic models and techniques in today's world. Current day concerns such as COVID-19, relevant social justice issues, and telebehavioral health are discussed along with ethical implications to help develop appropriate and timely systemic skills. Educators who are seeking a resource that provides an excellent and objective presentation of systemic history, ethics, skills, current issues, and even current topics more specifically related to youth will find this the ideal resource.

Tracy Baldo, Senstock PhD, Associate Dean, School of Counseling, Walden University, delivers the knowledge and skills to help today's diverse clients in an increasingly complex world. Sweeping in breadth and depth, this is the most comprehensive guide available to examine contemporary issues and interventions in couple, marriage, and family therapy. Designed for masters and doctoral level students, it helps clinicians to examine their professional identity, family systems, and systems theory, current issues facing today's families, couples, and children, and how to apply skills, interventions, and assessments to provide optimal service to clients. The book is distinguished by its focus on the intersection of marriage and family therapy and the counseling professions. Also included is key information about multiculturalism, intersectionality, nontraditional families, and other social justice issues, as well as a dedicated chapter centered on working with people of color and underrepresented couples and families. The text also covers issues affecting today's youth and relevant youth-based skills, interventions, and assessments, and contemporary issues related to crisis, disaster, mental health, technology, and telebehavioral health.

Voices from the Field sections from diverse practitioners underscore important information. Each chapter provides clear definitions, descriptions, and relevant scholarship along with activities and examples showcasing the use of systemic theory, contextual issues, major interventions, relevant technology, and skills. Instructors will have access to an Instructor's Manual, a Test Bank, and chapter PowerPoints.

Key Features: Delivers an in-depth exploration of family-based issues, theories, and skills related to diversity, multiculturalism, intersectionality, and racism/discrimination. Examines professional identity, the connection between contemporary issues and systemic theory, professional organizations, practice-based information, and more. Uniquely addresses the integration of foundational counseling skills and systematic interventions. Presents Voices from the Field, first-person accounts from diverse clinicians working with people of color, LGBTQIA clientele, and other underrepresented populations. Each chapter includes student activities and additional resources to facilitate learning. The Instructor's Manual provides a detailed matrix indicating how the text maps to CACREP and COAMFTE accreditation standards.
