The Book of Things Russell Sullivan, 2016-05-27 Have you ever stood corrected Was it difficult Was it uncomfortable The Book of Things was written to correct a mistake and then sets out to make mistakes about everything Clear your head and open your mind This book is a book of non science making it nonsense Can you make sense of that The Book Of Things places matter at its center and using science taught to a minor attempts to illustrate a way that may matter to some a way where simple science can be extrapolated into something larger than itself The Book Of Things also considers success and failure that needle in a haystack at its center not posing the questions why or what if but applauding those who asked them An addendum to an appendice that is potentially fatal for some and inescapable for the writer The Book Of Things arrived not as planned but as a result of happenstance It is hoped that others who may share in the books in jokes will find not a serendipitous belonging but an eventuality of happenstance allowing them to share in that which inspires books and readers Creativity It is our creativity that has enabled much and provided the wild geese that tease and titillate us providing endeavor that a smith once considered vital to enriching our lives The Book Of Things draws upon the legacy of those such as that smith and others in different fields whose creativity shaped the world we live in today It is about giving back returning that creative impetus and adding impetuous zest This is the intrinsic nature of the writer a lover of the words of so many others and wanting to share at least some of the results of that passion with others
