Huntington and Barbara Heck With Sketches of Their Female Associates and Successors in the Early History of the Denomination To Mes Bishop Hamline And Miss Francis E Willard Ladies In submitting to you the volume which the American Methodist Ladies Centenary Association has through you as their president and secretary requested me to write an apologetic remark is due to both the public and myself A good authority has said that no man can do anything thoroughly in literature or art unless he rides it as a hobby Hobbyism in literature is however particularly obnoxious to criticism to popular criticism at least especially if it inflicts on the public a multiplication of books of substantially the same subject If I incur this risk I cannot blame myself In my historic writings on Methodism I have contemplated but two tasks having concluded the first of these attempts and issued two volumes of the second I had hoped to complete the latter before the present date and then turn to quite other labors But the command of the Centenary Committee to prepare its Centenary Book could not be disobeyed This centenary volume had hardly been published before your command also reached me and here is my response So important is this centenary occasion of Methodism so capable and promising of transcendent results not only to the Church but to the religious welfare of the country generally that I have felt compelled by my conscience to respond to your call The preparation of this small volume has deeply interested me My previous historical studies of earl Methodism have convinced me that no other modern perhaps no ancient section of the Church possessed richer materials for the illustration of female piety and agency in religion than Methodism About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Chilcote,2017-11-10 John Wesley promoted the ministry of women in early Methodism Amazing women like Phoebe Palmer Catherine Booth and Frances Willard founding figures in the holiness movement the Salvation Army and the Woman s Christian Temperance Union claimed biblical precedent for their groundbreaking ministries They withstood the onslaught of criticism and hostility from those who thought they had stepped out of their proper sphere Methodists have championed the cause of women and developed biblical spiritual and practical arguments for their ministry for two and a half centuries More than fifty documents from the history of Methodism chronicle the tortuous journey leading to biblical equality in this family of churches At a time when the ministry of women is under serious attack in a number of quarters yet again we all have much to learn from the witness of Wesleyan Christians who argued for women s ministry This story illustrates how faithful women when they knew they had the Lord s approval stood like the beaten anvil to the stroke Courage Defiance Perseverance Faithfulness These qualities define the Methodist defense of women in ministry A Challenge Mrs. Elizabeth Ross,Methodist Church (Canada). Woman's Missionary Society,19?? Chilcote, Ulrike Schuler, 2018-08-06 Despite the fact that women are often mentioned as having played instrumental roles in the establishment of Methodism on the Continent of Europe very little detail concerning the women has ever been provided to add texture to this historical tapestry This book of essays redresses this by launching a new and wider investigation into the story of pioneering Methodist women in Europe By bringing to light an alternative set of historical narratives this edited volume gives voice to a broad range of religious issues and concerns during the critical period in European history between 1869 and 1939 Covering a range of nations in Continental Europe some important interpretive themes are suggested such as the capacity of women to network their ability to engage in God's work and their skill at navigating difficult cultural boundaries This ground breaking study will be of significant interest to scholars of Methodism but also to students and academics working in history religious studies and gender The Leading Women Judith Craig, 2004 Bishop Judith Craig interviews all of the living United Methodist women bishops and weaves their reflections together to tell the Church especially young women and those interested in ministry the stories of these pioneers at the episcopal level Each bishop has been asked to reflect on her early life her education her call to ministry how she emerged as a leader and what she identifies in looking back that helped shape how she carries out her role today
