The World According To Evan Mecham:

The World According to Evan Mecham Mark Siegel, 1987 The Language of Humor Don L. F. Nilsen, Alleen Pace Nilsen, 2018-11-01 Much of today's communication is carried out through various kinds of humor and we therefore need to be able to understand its many aspects. Here two of the world's leading pioneers in humor studies, Alleen and Don Nilsen, explore how humor can be explained across the numerous sub-disciplines of linguistics. Drawing on examples from language play and jokes in a range of real-life contexts such as art, business, marketing, comedy, creative writing, science, journalism, and politics, the authors use their own theory of Features, functions, and subjects of Humor to analyze humor across all disciplines. Each highly accessible chapter uses a rich array of examples to stimulate discussion and interaction, even in large classes. Supplemental PowerPoints to accompany each of the 25 chapters are available online, taking many of the insights from the chapters for further interactional discussions with students.

Arizona Politicians James W. Johnson, 2015-10-19 Do you know these famous Arizona politicians? A congresswoman who was bridesmaid to Eleanor Roosevelt. A car dealer who propelled himself to the governor's mansion with the help of public recognition of his TV commercials. An Arizonan who served not only as governor and chief justice of the Arizona Supreme Court but also as the Majority Leader of the U.S. Senate and chief sponsor of the GI Bill. A cowboy who delivered speeches to ranchhands and went on to become a U.S. senator known as one of the great orators of the twentieth century. One of four Arizonans who lost a bid for the presidency yet made the Gallup Poll as one of the ten most admired men in the world. A secretary who became the first woman in the nation to sit on a state supreme court. For a state with a small population, Arizona has had an unusually strong presence on the national political scene. Barry Goldwater, Mo Udall, Bruce Babbitt, and John McCain made memorable runs for the White House over just the past four decades. Stewart Udall, Secretary of the Interior under Kennedy, was the first cabinet appointment from the state. Attorney General Richard Kleindienst and Supreme Court justice William Rehnquist were controversial appointees of Richard Nixon. And Arizona claims two of today's nine Supreme Court justices, not only Rehnquist, now Chief Justice, but also Sandra Day O'Connor, the first woman ever appointed to the high court. Not all of Arizona's politicians have garnered such distinction. Two of the state's last four governors of the twentieth century, Evan Mecham and Fife Symington, faced criminal indictments and were forced out of office. Journalist James Johnson has written profiles of 21 men and women from Arizona who have made their mark in the political arena. Chosen for their contributions to the state, their national prominence, their colorful personalities, and in some cases their notoriety, these prominent public servants, from first governor George W.P. Hunt to current senior senator McCain, all have been major participants in state or national affairs. Congressman Mo Udall once commented on Arizona's civilized brand of politics in which Republicans and Democrats, conservatives and liberals, treated one another with mutual respect. Johnson conveys both the spirit and spiritedness of Arizona politics and reveals how, in many cases, these politicians and their family members found their lives and careers overlapping. He tells their stories with humor.

and objectivity while political cartoonist David Fitzsimmons captures their trademark styles in original drawings Although the individuals may speak from different platforms all have been proud to call themselves Arizonans and proud to serve their state This book shares their accomplishments and shows how for better or worse they've helped put Arizona in the spotlight

Brown, 2021-01-26 Exceptionally absorbing and thrilling Masterful Nature A magnificent Scientific American genre defying narrative of the most ambitious science project ever conceived NASA's deep space mission to Europa the Jovian moon where might swim the first known alien life in our solar system In the spirit of Tom Wolfe and John McPhee The Mission is an exuberant master class of creative nonfiction that reveals how a motley determined few expanded the horizon of human achievement When scientists discovered the first ocean beyond Earth they had two big questions Is it habitable and How do we get there To answer the first they had to solve the second and so began a vivacious team's twenty-year odyssey to mount a mission to Europa, the ocean moon of Jupiter. Standing in their way, NASA fanatically consumed with landing robots on Mars, the White House, which never saw a science budget it couldn't cut, Congress fixated on going to the moon or Mars anywhere really to give astronauts something to do, rivals in academia who wanted instead to go to Saturn and even Jupiter itself, which guards Europa in a pulsing, rippling radiation belt, a halo of death whose conditions are like those that follow a detonated thermonuclear bomb. The Mission is the Homeric never-before-told story of modern space exploration and a magnificent portrait of the inner lives of scientists who study the solar system's mysterious outer planets. David W. Brown chronicles the remarkable saga of how Europa was won and what it takes to get things done both down here and up there.
