The World In Figures:

The World's Religions in Figures Todd M. Johnson, Brian J. Grim, 2013-03-25 Created by two of the field's leading experts this unique introduction to international religious demography outlines the challenges in interpreting data on religious adherence and presents a contemporary portrait of global religious belief Offers the first comprehensive overview of the field of international religious demography detailing what we know about religious adherents around the world and how we know it Examines religious freedom and diversity including agnostics and atheists on a global scale highlighting trends over the past 100 years and projecting estimates for the year 2050 Outlines the issues and challenges related to definitions taxonomies sources analyses and other techniques in interpreting data on religious adherence Considers data from religious communities censuses surveys and scholarly research along with several in depth case studies on the global Muslim population religion in China and the religious demography of recently created Sudan and South Sudan Argues against the belief that the twentieth century was a secular period by putting forward new evidence to the contrary Provides resources for measuring both qualitatively and quantitatively important data on the world's religious situation in the twenty first century The World in Figures, 1976

Changing families and their lifestyles H. Moerbeek, A. Niehof, J. van Ophem, 2023-08-28 This volume comprises contributions from several fields of study in the social sciences The different disciplinary angles intersect at the level of the research subjects families households and consumers Together they reflect a broad field of study that always had its particular niche in Wageningen as household and consumer studies The five separate parts the formation and dissolution of families stratification and inequality consumer and household behaviour leisure time and hygiene health and society nicely reflect the broadness of this field The eighteen contributions in this volume were purposefully selected not only based on their contents and quality but also because of their relationship to the work of Kees de Hoog who retired this year Although Kees de Hoog is a professor of family sociology and family policy his work throughout the years has extended far beyond that and covers the fields that are captured by the different parts in this book Therefore the contributions in this volume comprise an interesting read for scholars all over the world who have an interest in families consumers households and the ways they interface

The Broadview Anthology of Expository Prose - Third Canadian Edition Laura Buzzard, Don LePan, Nora Ruddock, Alexandria Stuart, 2017-08-08 The third Canadian edition of this anthology has been substantially revised and updated for a contemporary audience a selection of classic essays from earlier eras has been retained but the emphasis is very much on twenty first century expository writing There is also a focus on issues of great importance in twenty first century Canada such as climate change the Truth and Reconciliation Commission the Jian Ghomeshi trial Facebook police discrimination trans rights and postsecondary education in the humanities Works of different lengths and levels of difficulty are represented as are narrative descriptive and persuasive essays and new to this edition lyric essays For the new edition there are also considerably more short pieces than ever before a number of op ed pieces are included as are pieces from blogs and from online news sources The representation of academic writing from several disciplines has been increased and in some cases the anthology also includes news reports presenting the results of academic research to a general audience Also new to this edition are essays from a wide range of the most celebrated prose writers of the modern era from Susan Sontag Eula Biss and Michel Foucault to Anne Carson and Ta Nehisi Coates The anthology also offers increased diversity of representation including for example a larger proportion of First Nations writers and women writers than previous Canadian editions Unobtrusive explanatory notes appear at the bottom of the page and each selection is preceded by a headnote that provides students with information regarding the context in which the piece was written Each reading is also followed by questions for discussion A unique feature is the inclusion of a set of additional notes on the anthology s companion website notes designed to be of particular help to EAL students and or students who have little familiarity with Canadian culture The anthology is accompanied by two companion websites The student website features additional readings and interactive writing exercises as well as the additional notes The instructor website provides additional discussion questions and for a number of the anthology selections background information that may be of interest
