Contemporary Mexican Women Writers Gabriella de Beer, 2010-06-28 Mexican women writers moved to the forefront of their country's literature in the twentieth century Among those who began publishing in the 1970s and 1980s are Maria Luisa Puga Silvia Molina Brianda Domecq Carmen Boullosa and Angeles Mastretta Sharing a range of affinities while maintaining distinctive voices and outlooks these are the women whom Gabriella de Beer has chosen to profile in Contemporary Mexican Women Writers De Beer takes a three part approach to each writer She opens with an essay that explores the writer's apprenticeship and discusses her major works. Next she interviews each writer to learn about her background, writing, and view of herself and others. Finally de Beer offers selections from the writer's work that have not been previously published in English translation. Each section concludes with a complete bibliographic listing of the writer's works and their English translations. These essays, interviews, and selections vividly recreate the experience of being with the writer and sharing her work, hearing her tell about and evaluate herself, and reading the words she has written. The book will be rewarding reading for everyone who enjoys fine writing.
