Unnatural Companions Peter Christie, 2020-05-21 Highly compelling page turning read TNC's Cool Green Science We love our pets Dogs cats birds reptiles and other species have become an essential part of more families than ever before in North America today pets outnumber people Pet owners are drawn to their animal companions through an innate desire to connect with other species But there is a dark side to our domestic connection with animal life the pet industry is contributing to a global conservation crisis for wildlife often without the knowledge of pet owners In Unnatural Companions journalist Peter Christie issues a call to action for pet owners If we hope to reverse the alarming trend of wildlife decline pet owners must acknowledge the pets versus conservation dilemma and concede that our well fed and sheltered cats too often prey on small backyard wildlife and seemingly harmless reptiles released into the wild might be the next destructive invasive species We want our pets to eat nutritionally healthy food but how does the designer food we feed them impact the environment Christie's book is a cautionary tale to responsible pet owners about why we must change the ways we love and care for our pets It concludes with the positive message that the small changes we make at home can foster better practices within the pet industry that will ultimately benefit our pets wild brethren

The Animal's Companion Jacky Colliss Harvey, 2019-04-02 A unique and compelling exploration of why humans need animal companions from dogs and cats to horses birds and reptiles through the eyes of a New York Times bestselling historical detective author In The Animal's Companion the acclaimed social anthropologist and author of Red A History of the Redhead turns her keen eye for cultural investigation toward uncovering why humans have such a strong desire to share everyday life with pets It's a history that can be traced back to a cave in France where anthropologists discovered evidence of a boy and his dog taking a walk together 26 000 years ago From those preserved foot and paw prints Jacky Colliss Harvey draws on literary artistic and archaeological evidence to sweep readers through centuries and across continents to examine how our relationships with our pets have developed but also stayed very much the same Through delightful stories of the most famous endearing and sometimes eccentric pet owners throughout history Colliss Harvey examines the when the how and the why of our connection to the animals we take into our lives and suggests fascinating new insights into one of the most long standing of all human love affairs
