Credition - An Interdisciplinary Approach to the Nature of Beliefs and Believing Rüdiger J. Seitz,Hans Ferdinand Angel,Raymond Paloutzian,Ann Taves,2023-07-27 The concept of credition represents an innovative research field at the interface of the natural sciences and the humanities addressing the nature of beliefs and believing Credition signifies the integrative information processing that is brought about by neurophysiologically defined neural activity in the brain affording decision making In analogy to cognition and emotion it is mediated by neural processes and constrains behavior by predictive coding Three categories of beliefs have been defined on the background of evolutionary biology that can be differentiated linguistically The goal of the collection of research papers is to provide an interdisciplinary discourse on an international level in the emerging field of credition On this basis individual group specific and cultural narratives of secular and non secular origin can become normative in particular when enhanced by ritual acts Also the recently defined belief categories can pave the way for novel approaches of empirical research on the formation of civilizations and cultures as well as for new perspectives on the psychopathological understanding of mental disorders The disciplines of empirical research such as cognitive science neurophysiology neuropsychology social neuroscience shall counteract with theoretical disciplines such as anthropology philosophy and theology in order to elaborate premises that are suited to bridge the scientific gap The potential contributors will submit their abstracts such that they are available for the International meeting Credition An Interdisciplinary Challenge that is going to take place in October 2021 in Hannover Germany Following the symposium the participants shall elaborate their perspective concerning beliefs and believing based on their expertise and the information they have learned during the symposium The authors are expected to submit a concise paper of 2000 words C Type Article
