The Dark Fountain:

Fountain's Glory Micah Brien, 2002-04 Fountain Lindsey runs a charter boat business on the Florida Gulf coast His business is good but something crawls in Fountain's stomach something that is a gnawing need to do something better with his life To sail may be the answer Not just a Sunday afternoon outing but a real sail The weather people he knows and good sense tells him to stay in The boat stored on his dock is too old he is a fisherman not a sailor But the need is established and he has to go And if he is going he is going to make it big He is going to forget what is sane and proper and go around the world And he is going all the way on the boat Fountain's Glory

A Thousand Shards of Glass Michael Katakis, 2014-02-13 A visceral and eviscerating lament for the USA the country Katakis loved but can no longer bear to live in Once upon a time Michael Katakis lived in a place of big dreams bright colours and sleight of hand That place was America One night travelling where those who live within illusions should never go he stared into the darkness and glimpsed a faded flag where shadows gathered revealing another America It was a broken place bred from fear and distrust a thousand shards of glass filled with a people who long ago had given away all that was precious a people who had been sold for so long a foreign betrayal that finally came from within and for nothing more than a handful of silver These essays letters and journal entries were written as a farewell to the country Michael loves still and to the wife he knew as his True North A powerful and personal polemic A Thousand Shards of Glassis Michael s appeal to his fellow citizens to change their course a cautionary tale to those around the world who idealise an America that never was and crucially a glimpse beyond the myth to a country whose best days could still lie ahead
