Mothers and Daughters in Arab Women's Literature Dalya Abudi,2010-11-11 This study explores the mother daughter relationship as the most fundamental and most intimate female relationship and as the cornerstone of Arab family life Drawing on autobiographical and semifictional works by women writers from across the Arab world the study offers a first hand account of how Arab women view and experience this primary bond The author uses both early and contemporary writings of Arab women to illuminate the traditional and evolving nature of mother daughter relationships in Arab families and how these family dynamics reflect and influence modern Arab life The compelling narratives demystify the institutions of family and motherhood and show the potential of mothers and daughters to transform the patriarchal family and thus the fabric of Arab society A groundbreaking work that fills a void in cross cultural studies it is of interest to scholars and students of Middle Eastern studies women s studies and family studies the tendency has been to focus on discrete stories notable among them Judges 11 the story of Jephthah's human sacrifice of his daughter and Genesis 19 the dark tale of Lot's daughters seduction of their father By taking the full spectrum into account however the daughter emerges prominently as not only expendable and exploitable as an emphasis on daughter sacrifice or incest has suggested but as cherished and protected by her father Depictions of daughters are multifarious and there is a balance of very positive and very negative images While not uncritical of earlier feminist investigations this book makes a contribution to feminist biblical criticism and utilizes methods drawn from the social sciences and psychoanalysis Alongside careful textual analysis Johanna Stiebert offers a critical evaluation of the heuristic usefulness of the ethnographic honour shame model of parallels with Roman family studies and of the application and meaning of patriarchy Following semantic analysis of the primary Hebrew terms for father and daughter as well as careful examination of inter family dynamics and the daughter's role vis vis the son's alongside thorough investigation of both Judges 11 and Genesis 19 and also of the metaphor of God the father of daughters Eve Wisdom and Zion Stiebert provides the fullest exploration of daughters in the Hebrew Bible to date Winston of Virginia, and Allied Families Clayton Torrence, 1927 Genealogical chronology of the world before Christ, ed. by K.A.
