The David Park Scroll:

The David Park Scroll David Park, Paul Chadbourne Mills, 1989 Background information on the artist accompanies the scroll in which he depicts his childhood memories of Boston David Park: A Retrospective Janet Bishop, 2019-05-28 This generously illustrated volume is the first comprehensive publication devoted to the powerfully expressive work of David Park 1911-60 Best known as the founder of Bay Area Figurative art Park moved from Boston to California at the age of seventeen and spent most of his adult life in and around San Francisco In the immediate postwar years like many avant garde American artists he engaged with Abstract Expressionism and painted non objectively In a moment of passion in 1949 he made the radical decision to abandon nearly all of his abstract canvases at the Berkeley city dump and return to the human figure in so doing marking the beginning of the Bay Area Figurative movement The astonishingly powerful paintings he made in the decade that followed brought together his long held interest in classic subjects such as portraiture domestic interiors musicians rowers and bathers with lush gestural paint handling and an extraordinary sense of color In 1958-59 Park reached his expressive peak reveling in the sensuous qualities of paint to create intensely physical psychologically charged and deeply felt canvases This fertile period cut short by illness in 1960 Park transferred his creative energy to other mediums when he could no longer work on canvas In the last months of his life bedridden he produced an extraordinary thirty foot long felt tip pen scroll and a poignant series of gouaches Published to accompany the first major museum exhibition of Park's work in more than thirty years David Park: A Retrospective traces the full arc of the artist's career from his early social realist and cubist inspired efforts of the 1930s to his mature figurative paintings of the 1950s and his astounding final works on paper An overview of Park's full body of work by Janet Bishop SFMOMA's Thomas Weisel Family Curator of Painting and Sculpture will be joined by approximately ninety full color plates of paintings and works on paper an essay by Tara McDowell on the figure drawing sessions held by Park Richard Diebenkorn Elmer Bischoff Frank Lobdell and others in their studios starting in 1953 short essays on Park's scroll his gouaches and the portraits that Imogen Cunningham and Park made of each other and an illustrated chronology Published in association with the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art Exhibition schedule Modern Art Museum of Fort Worth June 2-September 8 2019 Kalamazoo Institute of Arts December 21 2019 March 15 2020 San Francisco Museum of Modern Art April 11-September 7 2020 David Park David Park, 1998 David Park Nancy Boas, 2012-03-17 In this beautifully illustrated biography compiled from comprehensive and sweeping interviews Nancy Boas traces Park's resolute search for a new kind of figuration one that would penetrate abstract expressionism's thickly layered surfaces and infuse them with human presence David Park, Painter Helen Park Bigelow, 2015-12-01 A mesmerizing deeply moving portrait of the life and works of one of America's most important twentieth century painters A half century after his death David Park 1911-1960 is recognized as one of America's most important twentieth century painters He was the first of the brilliant post World War II generation of artists to break with Abstract Expressionism's hegemony and return to painting recognizable subjects most powerfully the human figure Park's original cohorts of Bay Area Figurative painters were his close friends Richard Diebenkorn Elmer Bischoff and Hassel Smith All outlived him Smith by nearly fifty years and enjoyed recognition and fame during their lifetimes Park's reputation is just now fully coming into its own In David Park Painter Park's younger daughter writer Helen Park Bigelow paints a mesmerizing deeply moving portrait of her father's life and early difficult death Park left high school in New England without graduating and came west in order to paint He married Lydia Deedie Newell when he was nineteen and was the father of two by the time he was twenty two We are brought into a family rich with moral conviction ingenuity smart and gifted friends music and art four complex people guided and inspired by values of integrity Those same values guided and inspired David Park's painting Yet this is much more than an artist biography David Park Painter is a skillful blend of memoir and observations about life in the Bay Area just before and just after World War II when some of America's most original even radical artists and writers gathered there This close up portrayal is unlike other accounts of artists It is the story of a family built on the love and dedication of one man who held nothing back from his art and of the spirit of the wife and daughters who supported him Richard Armstrong in reflecting on Park's generation of artists in his foreword to this beautiful book observes that David Park Painter is especially valuable as we persist in seeking to make real and human the commanding artistic figures
