The Icknield Way Edward Thomas,2020-04-09 This title is one of Thomas s essays on travel which portraits the English countryside enriched with interesting historical details Edward Thomas 1878 1917 was a British poet essayist and novelist Thomas s poems are noted for their attention to the English countryside and a certain colloquial style His career in poetry only came after he had already been a successful writer and literary critic In 1915 he enlisted in the British Army to fight in the First World War and was killed in action during the Battle of Arras in 1917 soon after he arrived in France The short poem In Memoriam exemplifies how his poetry blends the themes of war and the countryside Much has been written of travel far less of the road Writers have treated the road as a passive means to an end and honoured it most when it has been an obstacle they leave the impression that a road is a connection between two points which only exists when the traveller is upon it Edward Thomas The Icknield Way Path Icknield Way Association,1989 Reading and Mapping Hardy's Roads Scott Rode,2006-06-23 This book examines Thomas Hardy s representations of the road and the ways the archaeological and historical record of roads inform his work Through an analysis of the uneven and often competing road signs found within three of his major novels The Return of the Native Tess of the D Urbervilles and Jude the Obscure and by mapping the road travels of his protagonists this book argues that the road as represented by Hardy provides a palimpsest that critiques the Victorian construction of social and sexual identities Balancing modern exigencies with mythic possibilities Hardy s fictive roads exist as contested spaces that channel desire for middle class assimilation even as they provide the means both to reinforce and to resist conformity to hegemonic authority The Wiltshire Archaeological and Natural History Magazine Edward Hungerford Goddard,1914 Includes proceedings of the annual general meetings of the Wiltshire Archaeological and Natural History Society The Ancient Burial-mounds of England L.V.
